shall issue to her a duplicate certificate.

84. Any person claiming to be interested under any will, settlement or trust deed, or any instrument or transfer or transmission or under an unregistered instrument, or under an execution where the execution creditor seeks to affect land in which the execution debtor is interested beneficiary but the title to which is registered in the name of some other person or otherwise howsoever in any land, mortgage or incumbrance, may cause to be filed on his behalf with the Registrar a caveat in form in the schedule to this Act against the registration of any person as transferee or owner of, or of any instrument affecting such estate or interest, unless such instrument be expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator.

85. Every caveat filed with the registrar shall state the name and addition of the person by whom, or on whose behalf the same is filed and except in the case of a caveat filed by the registrar as hereinafter provided shall be signed by the caveator, his attorney or agent, and shall state some address or place within the Province at which notices and proceedings relating to such caveat or the subject matter thereof may be served, and the nature of the interest claimed, and shall be supported by an affidavit that in the belief of the deponent the person by whom, or on whose behalf, the caveat is filed has a good and valid claim in respect of the land, mortgage or incumbrance intended to be affected by the same, and that the caveat is not filed for the purpose of delaying or embarrassing the applicant, or owner, or any person claiming through him, which affidavit or declaration may be in the form in schedule

86. Upon the receipt of a caveat the registrar shall enter the same in the day book, and shall make a memorandum thereof upon the certificate of title of the land affected by such caveat, and shall forthwith send a notice of the caveat and of the interest claimed thereunder through the post office or otherwise to the person against whose title the caveat has been lodged; but in the case of a caveat before registration of title under this Act, the registrar shall on receipt thereof enter the same in a book to be kept by him in which shall be entered all instruments affecting land as to which no title has yet issued.

87. So long as any caveat remains in force the registrar shall not register an instrument purporting to affect the land, mortgage or incumbrance in respect to which such caveat is lodged, unless such instrument be expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator.

88. The caveator may, by notice in writing to the registrar, withdraw his caveat at any time, and the registrar shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of such withdrawal by mail or otherwise to the caveatee.

89. Except in the case of a caveat lodged by the registrar, as hereinafter provided, every caveat lodged against any land, mortgage or incumbrance, shall be deemed to have lapsed after the expiration of sixty days after notice, either served as process is usually served or sent by registered mail in the form in Schedule, to this Act or to like effect at or to the address stated in the caveat has been given to the caveator to take proceedings in court on his caveat, unless before the expiration of the said period of sixty days the caveat-taker takes proceedings in court by originating summons subject to the provisions of The Judicature Ordinance of the North-West Territories, or otherwise, to substantiate the title, estate, interest or lien claimed by his caveat and a judge's order in such proceedings has been filed with the registrar continuing such caveat.

Provided that the court or judge may upon an ex parte application shorten the said period of sixty days to such period as he shall specify in such order, and a copy of such order shall be served or mailed with the notice in this section referred to.

90. At any time before the expiration of the time limited for proceeding upon a caveat upon application to be made by way of summons to a Judge, the Judge for sufficient cause shewn, and subject to such conditions as may seem proper, may extend the time for proceeding upon such caveat for a further period to be specified in the order made upon such application.

91. In the case of a caveat filed, except a caveat filed by the registrar, as hereinafter provided, the applicant or owner may at any time apply to the court or a judge by originating summons, subject to the provisions of the Judicature Ordinance of the North-West Territories calling upon the caveat-taker to show cause why such caveat should not be discharged; and upon the hearing of such application the said court or judge may make such order in the premises and as to costs as to such court or judge may seem just.
92. In any proceedings in respect of a caveat the court or judge may order that the caveator give such undertaking or security as such court or judge may consider sufficient to indemnify every person against any damage that may be sustained by reason of any dis- position of the property being delayed, or to answer the costs of the caveatee, and may direct the registrar to delay registering any dealing with the land, mort- gage or incumbrance during such time as the order of such court or judge provides, or may direct the caveator to take further proceedings by action or otherwise upon his caveat, or may make such other order as may be just.

93. In any proceedings taken in consequence of the filing of a caveat if it be made to appear to the court or judge that the caveator, or person on whose behalf the caveat has been filed by the registrar, as hereinafter provided, claims an interest in the land, mortgage or incumbrance by virtue of any contract in writing for the sale and purchase of such land, mortgage or incumbrance, signed by the vendor thereof, or by his lawfully authorized agent, or by an assignment of such contract, duly attested in the manner provided for in sections 167 and 168 of this Act, and that there has been no default under the terms of such contract, then the court or judge may, and unless it otherwise appears to be a case in which the caveat should be removed, shall refuse to order the removal of such caveat.

94. Any person, other than the registrar, filing or continuing any caveat without reasonable cause, shall be liable to make compensation to any person who may have sustained damage thereby, and such compensation may be recovered by action if the caveator have withdrawn such caveat and no proceedings have been taken by the caveator or caveatee as herein provided, but if such proceedings have been taken then such compensation shall be decided by the court, or judge, in such proceedings whether the caveat have been withdrawn or not.

95. After a caveat shall have lapsed or been withdrawn or discharged, it shall not be lawful, except as herein mentioned, for the same person or for any one on his behalf to lodge a further caveat; but nothing herein contained shall prejudice the right of the registrar to enter any caveat under the powers vested in him by this Act; and a Judge may, if he thinks proper, upon application made to him for that purpose and upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as he may consider just, order that a new caveat be filed, and such order shall fix a time within which the caveator must proceed upon such caveat.

96. In the case of a caveat filed by the Registrar as hereinafter provided the applicant, or owner, may apply to the court or a Judge by originating summons as provided for by the Judicature Ordinance of the North-West Territories to be served upon the person on whose behalf such caveat has been filed for an order that such caveat be withdrawn or discharged; and in case such person on whose behalf such caveat has been filed is an infant, lunatic or person of unsound mind, without guardian or committee such court or judge may by an ex-parte order direct that such summons be served on the official guardian, or some other person to be named therein, and may impose upon the applicant such terms as to the costs of such guardian or other person appointed by such order as may seem just; and upon such application such court or judge may make such order in the premises, either dismissing such application, discharging or withdrawing such caveat, or directing any of the parties to commence proceedings by action or otherwise as to the said court or judge may seem just and proper.

97. Registration by way of caveat, whether by the Registrar or by any caveator, shall have the same effect as to priority as the registration of any instrument under this Act, and the Registrar may in his discretion allow the withdrawal of such caveat at any time and the registration in lieu thereof, of the instrument under which the person on whose behalf such caveat was lodged claims his title or interest, provided such instrument is an instrument that may be registered under this Act; and, if the withdrawal of such caveat and the registration of such instrument is simultaneous, the same priority shall be preserved to all rights under the instrument as the same rights were entitled to under the caveat.

98. Any person claiming an interest in any land, mortgage or incumbrance, may in lieu of, or after filing a caveat, proceed by way of action to enforce his claim.

99. Upon the withdrawal, lapse or removal of any caveat, or upon the making of any order by the court or judge in connection therewith, a memorandum of such withdrawal, lapse, removal or order, as the case may be, shall be made by the Registrar upon the certificate of title, and upon the duplicate certificate thereof.
100. The Court or a Judge may, on application of the Registrar on behalf of any person who is under the disability of infancy, lunacy, unsoundness of mind or absence from the Province prohibit the dealing with any land, mortgage or incumbrance in interest therein or the dealing with any land in any case in which it appears to him that an error has been made by misdescription of such land or otherwise in any certificate of title or other instrument of for the prevention of any other improper dealing.

101. Any contract in writing for the sale and purchase of any land, mortgage or incumbrance, shall notwithstanding anything to the contrary therein contained, be assignable, and any assignment of any such contract shall operate according to its terms to transfer to the assignee therein mentioned all the right, title and interest of the assignor both at law and in equity subject to the conditions and stipulations in such assignment contained.

Provided however, that nothing herein contained shall affect any rights at law or in equity of the original vendor, or owner of the land, mortgage or incumbrance until notice, in writing, of such assignment has been either sent to him by registered mail, or served upon him in the way process is usually served; and—

The notice mentioned in section 3 hereof shall be deemed to be such notice.

(2) This section shall apply to written agreements, or contracts, in writing, for the sale and purchase of any land, mortgage or incumbrance entered into before, as well as after, the passing of this Act.

128. Whenever the plan of the survey in paragraph 1 hereof mentioned is forwarded to the Registrar of the proper Land Titles Office, by the Public Works Department, pursuant to the provisions of Section 7 of the Act, the Registrar shall call in the duplicate Certificate of Title for all patented lands affected thereby in the manner set forth in Section 111 of this Act, but if the registered owner refuses or neglects to return the duplicate Certificate of Title within thirty days after the demand has been mailed to him the Registrar shall proceed to file and register the plan and shall cancel the area required for the road as shown on such plan from the original Certificates in his office and from the duplicates that may have been or may otherwise be returned to him and shall issue a Certificate of Title for the road to His Majesty in the right of the Province and forward the duplicate thereof to the Minister of Public Works.

129. If a Certificate of Title has not been issued for any lands affected by a road, as shown by the plan, which has been forwarded to the Registrar by the Public Works Department pursuant to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar shall cancel the area required for the road as shown on such plan from the Certificates of Title as they are issued and from the duplicates before they are delivered to the owners, and shall issue new Certificates of Title for the area so cancelled, as provided in the preceding section hereof, unless the grant for the land is issued subject to the road shown on the plan.

133. Whenever any person, who, if not under disability might have made any application, given any consent, done any act, or been party to any proceeding under this Act, is a minor, idiot or lunatic, the guardian or committee of the estate, respectively, of such a person may make such application, give such consent, do such act, and be party to such proceeding as such person if free from disability might have made, given, done and been party to, and shall otherwise represent such person for the purposes of this Act; and whenever there is no guardian or committee of the estate of any such person aforesaid being infant, idiot or lunatic, or whenever any person, the committee of whose estate if he were idiot or lunatic would be authorized to act for and represent such person under this Act, is of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, but has not been found an idiot or lunatic under inquisition, a court or a judge may appoint a guardian of such person for the purpose of any proceeding under this Act, and from time to time change such guardian. And whenever the court or a judge sees fit, it or he may appoint a person to act as the next friend of a married woman for the purpose of any proceeding under this Act, and from time to time remove or change such next friend.
134. Whenever in any action, suit, or other proceeding affecting land, for which a certificate of title has been granted, it becomes necessary to determine the fact whether the transferee, mortgagee, encumbrancer, or lessee is a purchaser or transferee, mortgagee, encumbrancer, or lessee, for valuable consideration or not, any person who is a party to the action, suit or other proceeding, may give in evidence any transfer, mortgage, encumbrance, lease or other instrument affecting the land in dispute, although the same is not referred to in the certificate of title or has been cancelled by the registrar.

135. Except in the case of fraud, no person, contracting or dealing with, or taking or proposing to take, a transfer, mortgage, encumbrance or lease, from the owner of any land, for which a certificate of title has been granted, shall be bound or concerned to inquire into or ascertain the circumstances in, or the consideration for which, the owner or any previous owner of the land is or was registered, or to see to the application of the purchase money or of any part thereof, nor shall he be affected by notice direct, implied or constructive, of any trust or unregistered interest in the land, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding; and the knowledge that any trust or unregistered interest is in existence, shall not of itself be imputed as fraud.

137. Upon the transfer of any land, for which a certificate of title has been granted, to two or more persons as joint owners, to be held by them as trustees, it shall be lawful for the transferee to insert in the transfer or other instrument the words "no survivorship"; and the registrar shall, in such case, include such words in the duplicate certificate issued to such joint owners pursuant to the transfer and in the certificate of title; and any two or more persons so registered as joint owners of any land held by them as trustees, may, by writing under their hand, authorize the registrar to enter the words "no survivorship" upon the duplicate certificate and also upon the certificate of title; and after such entry has been made and signed by the registrar in either such case as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for any less number of joint owners than the number so entered to transfer or otherwise deal with the land, without obtaining the sanction of the court or of a judge, by an order on motion or petition.

139. Nothing contained in this Act shall take away or affect the jurisdiction of any competent court on the ground of actual fraud, or over contracts for the sale or other disposition of land for which a certificate of title has been granted.

140. The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall, from time to time, provide the necessary books, forms, and other office requisites, and shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act; and shall also make such rules and regulations as to him appear necessary for giving effect to this Act, in cases unprovided for, according to its true intent and purpose.
141. Proceedings under this Act shall not abate or be suspended by any death, transmission or change of interest, but in any such event a judge may make such order for carrying on, discontinuing or suspending the proceedings, upon the application of any person interested, as under the circumstances he thinks just, and may for such purpose require the production of such evidence, and such notices to be given, as he thinks necessary.

142. No petition, order, affidavit, certificate registration or other proceeding under this Act shall be invalid by reason of any informality or technical irregularity therein, or of any mistake not affecting the substantial justice of the proceedings.

2. Affidavits for use in applications to register title, or in any matter other than the execution of instruments, may be made before any person authorized to take affidavits for use in the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories, or any Court hereafter constituted exercising within the province the jurisdiction powers and authority at the date of the passing of this Act exercised therein by the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories; and in all matters before a judge or the court where proof is required the same may be taken by affidavit sworn as aforesaid or by viva voce evidence as may be ordered by the judge or court.

3. Affidavits shall be subject to the practice at the date of the passing of this Act governing affidavits in the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories.

The inspector of land titles offices shall not, nor shall any registrar, deputy registrar, or any person acting under authority of a registrar, be liable to any action or proceeding for or in respect of any act bona fide done or omitted to be done in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers given by this Act, or any order or general rule made in pursuance of this Act.

144. Whenever any matter is, under this Act, submitted to a judge by a registrar or by any other person or authority and the judge deems it advisable that parties interested should be notified of the time and place when and where a hearing of the matter so submitted should be held, and no special provisions are made therefor in this Act or if there are any such special provisions and the judge shall be of opinion that the notice required thereby to be given is not sufficient, he may direct notice of such time and place to be given and he may direct that such notice be served personally upon such persons as he may direct or be left at their usual place of abode, or he may direct that such notice shall be posted at such place or places and for such periods as he may name, or he may direct that such notice be published in such newspaper or newspapers as he may designate and for such time as he may direct, and he may direct that such notice may be given in any one or more or in all the methods above specified.

146. Whenever by virtue of this Act a judge is required or authorized to hold an inquiry, proof of the matters relevant to the inquiry may be made before him by affidavit, which may be sworn before any judge of any court, notary public, justice of the peace or commissioner for taking affidavits, having authority or jurisdiction within the place where the oath is administered.

Provided always that the judge may, whenever he deems it expedient so to do, require the personal attendance of any person before him to testify as to the matters of any such inquiry or that any deponent to any affidavit shall attend in person before him to be cross-examined upon his affidavit.

2. Whenever the judge so requires any person or deponent to appear before him in person he may issue a summons under his hand and seal requiring such person or deponent to appear before him at a time and place to be specified to testify as to what he may know concerning the matters in question, or to be cross-examined as the case may be; and if such person or deponent fails to attend at the time and place specified, upon due proof under oath that such person or deponent has been duly served with the said summons and that proper conduct money has been paid or tendered to him, (which conduct money shall be according to the tariff of fees provided for the attendance of witnesses at trials in civil causes in the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories or any Court hereafter constituted exercising within the province the jurisdiction, powers and authority at the date of the passing of this Act exercised therein by the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories) and any law in force in the province, the judge may issue his warrant directed to the sheriff of any judicial district, directing him to apprehend such person or deponent and bring him before the said judge for examination and to keep him in his custody until he is so examined; and such sheriff shall obey the said warrant according to the tenor thereof. And the sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees for executing such warrant as he would be entitled to for executing a process issued out of such Court.

The practice and procedure for obtaining such order and giving such security shall be as nearly as may be the same as upon an application for security for costs in civil causes in the said Supreme Court, and the judge may direct payment of the costs incident to such application or order to be taxed and recovered as is provided in the case of the costs mentioned in subsection 3 of this section.
147. An appeal shall lie by the inspector of land titles offices, a registrar, or person directly interested therein, from any order or decision of a judge made or given under the provisions of this Act to the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories sitting in banc, or to any Court sitting in banc hereafter constituted exercising within the province the jurisdiction, powers and authority at the date of the passing of this Act exercised therein by the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories within the prescribed time, in the same manner and with the same incidents in and with which judgments and orders of that court by a single judge may be appealed from; and the practice and proceedings relating to appeals in the said court including costs and payment thereof and the enforcement of judgments on appeal, shall, adapted to the circumstances apply.
148. If, in any matter before a judge under this Act, the judge considers proper, he may refer the same to the court in banc, and such court may either dispose of the matter or refer it back to the judge with such direction as the court in banc may think fit.

149. The court or judge may order costs to be paid by or to any person party to any proceeding under this Act, regard being had to the following provisions:

That any applicant under this Act is liable prima facie to pay all costs, charges and expenses incurred by or in consequence of his application, except in a case where parties object whose rights are sufficiently secured without their appearance, or when any costs, charges or expenses are incurred unnecessarily or improperly.
