

Bill No. 35 of 1945.

A BILL TO AMEND THE PUBLIC WORKS
DEPARTMENT ACT

NOTE.

Section 17 of the Act, which is amended by section 1 of the Bill, deals with tenders for construction of public works, etc. The present section requires tenders to be invited by public advertisement or public notice except when the work can be more expeditiously and economically executed by order or commission or under the direction of officers of the Department. The effect of the amendment is to require tenders when the Minister deems it expedient.

Section 2 of the Bill amends section 25 of the Act which section authorizes the Provincial Treasurer to advance to the Minister out of the General Revenue Fund such sums as are required to pay for equipment, stock or material required by the Department, not exceeding at any one time One Million Two Hundred Thousand Dollars. The effect of the amendment is to increase this maximum to One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars.

W. S. GRAY,
Legislative Counsel.
