

Bill No. 73 of 1945.

A BILL TO AMEND THE BILLIARD ROOM ACT

---

N O T E

Section 12 of the above Act, which defines billiard room as a room in which a billiard table or bowling alley is set up for hire or gain, prohibits any person under the age of eighteen years from being employed in or about a billiard room. The amendment proposed by section 1 of this Bill, adds a proviso permitting girls or boys under the age of eighteen but over the age of sixteen to be employed in a billiard room with the consent of their parent or guardian, while the existing war lasts. This provision is made because of the difficulty in getting adult persons for this class of employment.
