

Bill No. 51 of 1949.

A BILL TO AMEND THE GRAZING LEASE
TAXATION ACT

---

NOTE.

This Bill amends The Grazing Lease Taxation Act, being chapter 47 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942.

Section 2 (b) which defines "Minister" is amended to refer to the Minister of Lands and Forests as the new Department of Lands and Forests is taking over the administration of this Act.

Section 6 (2) is amended. At the present time the proceeds of the grazing lease tax are distributed by giving one-fourth to the municipality or improvement district and one-fourth to the Provincial Treasurer for expenditure on school grants under the direction of the Minister of Education. The effect of the amendment is to give one-half of the tax to the municipal district or improvement district in which the land is located and the remaining half to the Provincial Treasurer for expenditure on school grants under the direction of the Minister of Education.

The Act comes into force upon the first of April, 1949, which is the date upon which the new Department of Lands and Forests comes into being.
