

Bill No. 17 of 1952.

A BILL TO AMEND THE WOODMEN'S LIEN ACT.

NOTE.

This Bill amends The Woodmen's Lien Act, being chapter 239 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942.

Section 6 is amended by striking out clause (c) of subsection (2) and by substituting a new clause (c). The section is further amended by adding a new subsection (2a) immediately after subsection (2). The effect of these amendments is to broaden the woodman's lien to cover the lumber made out of the logs or timber upon which he had a lien so long as the lumber is not purchased and paid for in full by a bona fide purchaser for value. If the lumber has been purchased and not paid for in full by a bona fide purchaser for value the lien exists only to the extent of the unpaid balance at the time the purchaser receives notice of the lien.

This Bill comes into force upon assent.

KENNETH A. MCKENZIE,
Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
