Bill No. 24 of 1953.

A BILL TO AMEND THE ELECTRIC POWER TAXATION ACT

Note

This Bill amends The Electric Power Taxation Act, being chapter 44 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942.

While the aforementioned Act is one in which the tax thereunder is suspended for the duration of the Dominion-Provincial Taxation Agreement 1952-1957, it is nonetheless a subsisting Act and the amendments made thereto by this Bill are for the purposes of having this Act conform to The Alberta Municipal Assessment Commission Act in respect of appeals from assessment and taxation. Appeals from assessment and taxation to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners are being abolished and appeals are to be made to the Alberta Assessment Commission. The amendments to this Act correct the references in section 3 to the body to which such appeals are to be made.

This Bill comes into force on the 1st day of July, 1953.

J. W. RYAN, Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
