

Bill No. 40 of 1954

A BILL TO AMEND THE ALBERTA LAND
SURVEYORS ACT

NOTE

This Bill amends The Alberta Land Surveyors Act, being chapter 287 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942.

Section 3 is amended. The section has been redrafted to conform to present drafting practice and now contains two subsections. Subsection (1) contains the prohibition against the surveying of lands other than Dominion lands by persons who are not registered as land surveyors under this Act. Subsection (2) provides for imprisonment for default in paying the fine there prescribed. The imprisonment provision is the only substantive change made to the section by this amendment.

Section 7, subsection (3), is amended. The effect of this amendment is to make meetings of the council mandatory upon the order of the president or upon the request of three members of the council, where, previously, the subsection was enabling only.

A new section 23 replaces the former section. The purpose of the new section is to make it clear that a candidate or applicant who is required to take an examination at the University of Alberta is also required to pay the University's fees therefor. Previously the only fee for examination mentioned in section 23 was that for an examination of an applicant for admission to articles. Other examination fees charged by the University were not expressly required to be paid by the Act.

Section 26 is amended to complete the references to sections excepted from the provisions of section 26.

Section 40 is amended to remove the requirement that opposite the names of all registered persons who have died a statement of this fact, be entered on the register.

Form C in the Schedule is amended. By the articles of apprenticeship the apprenticed surveyor binds himself in the sum of five hundred dollars. This is now referred to as a "penal" sum. The amendment removes the reference to "penal" sum.

This Bill comes into force on the 1st day of July, 1954.

J. W. RYAN,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
