

Bill No. 65 of 1955

A BILL TO AMEND THE AGRICULTURAL RELIEF
ADVANCES ACT

NOTE

This Bill amends The Agricultural Relief Advances Act, being chapter 77 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942.

Section 11, subsection (2) is amended so as to increase the maximum amounts of seed grain advances that may be made to necessitous farmers. Such a farmer who has 200 acres of arable land in condition for seeding may by virtue of the amendment be allowed seed for the whole of the acreage, whereas at present he may only be allowed seed for 120 acres. For 300 acres of arable land ready for seeding he may be allowed seed for a maximum of 225 acres instead of 165; for 400 acres 275 instead of 210; for 500 acres 350 instead of 255; and for 600 acres 450 instead of 300. Six hundred acres remains the upper limit for the land qualifying for an advance.

Section 13 is amended to relieve a municipality from the necessity of sending to the Minister the promissory note and prescribed form of agreement received from a farmer to whom an advance has been made.

Section 14, subsection (1) is amended to enable the municipal district instead of the Minister to file a caveat in respect of an advance. If the advance is made by an improvement district the caveat still has to be filed by the Minister.

This Bill comes into force upon assent.

J. W. RYAN,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
