BILL 89

A Bill to amend The Mines and Minerals Act

HON. MR. MANNING

EDMONTON, ALBERTA
Printed by A. SHNITKA, Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, 1957

Explanatory Note

General. While this Bill is a general amending Act, one proposed change intended to be made by this Bill results in the largest number of amendments contained herein, viz., the change from assignments of lease agreements to transfers of lease agreements, which is mainly a change in terminology but more descriptive of the transactions and easier to deal with from the administrative aspect.

2. (a) Adds a definition to section and removes definition of "brine".

(b) Removes definition of "documents".

(c) Replaces "tar sands" by "bituminous sands" in definition of "mineral".

(d) Removes these words from definition of "quarry".

(e) Restricts the definition of "record", "register", etc., to use in Part II and III.

(g) Adds definition.

3. Brings reference to The Oil and Gas Resources Conservation Act in line with proposed new Act's title.

BILL

No. 89 of 1957

An Act to amend The Mines and Minerals Act

(Assented to _____, 1957)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The Mines and Minerals Act, being chapter 204 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1955, is hereby amended.

2. Section 2, subsection (1) is amended

(a) by striking out clause (c) and substituting the following:

“(c) “bituminous sands” means the oil sands and all other mineral substances in association therewith being within townships eighty-four to one hundred and four inclusive ranges four to eighteen inclusive, west of the fourth meridian and occurring in the McMurray formation, being the stratigraphic formation lying above the upper Devonian carbonate sediments and below the Clearwater formation;”

(b) by striking out clause (k),

(c) as to clause (u), subclause (i) by striking out the words “tar sands” and substituting the words “bituminous sands”,

(d) as to clause (cc) by striking out the words “sand, gravel or”,

(e) as to clause (dd) by adding immediately after the words “and “registration”” the words “when used in Part II or Part III of this Act”,

(f) by relettering clause (gg) as clause (hh),

(g) by adding immediately after clause (ff) the following:

“(gg) “spacing unit” means a spacing unit within the meaning of The Oil and Gas Conservation Act”.

3. Section 5 is amended by striking out the word “Resources”, where it occurs in subsections (1) and (2).

4. Will make the index of Act's division conform to amendments proposed by this Bill.

5. Section 19, subsection (1), clauses (g) and (h) where relevant presently read:

"19. (1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may from time to time

“(g) establish a tariff of fees

“(i) pertaining to any lease, licence, reservation, permit, mineral claim, application, renewal or other agreement,

“(ii) for the registration of assignments,

“(iii) for the filing and discharge of mechanics' liens,

“(iv) for all copies of maps, plans, field notes, documents, papers or other records of the Department, and

“(v) for consenting to sub-leases, farm-outs or other contracts conveying any right granted to the lessee in an agreement,

“(h) reinstate, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, any agreement, lease, licence or permit that has been relinquished, cancelled or forfeited, if the rights are available and if application for reinstatement is made within six months of the date of relinquishment, cancellation or forfeiture,”.

This amendment

(a) removes the establishment of a tariff of fees for the registration of transfers and for the consent to sub-leases and other instruments which are dealt with in the new Part VIII,

(b) replaces clause (h) of section 19 and makes it possible for the Lieutenant Governor in Council to reinstate a portion of a location described in a lease after the portion has been relinquished or cancelled as well as an entire lease.

6. The new subsection (8) to section 24 will make it possible when necessary for the Minister to obtain a certificate of title under The Land Titles Act.

7. See note to clause 3.

8. See note to clause 3.

4. Section 8 is amended

- (a) under Part IV by striking out the words and figures "Transfer of Lease..... 214",
- (b) under Part VIII by striking out the words and figures "REGISTRATION OF ASSIGNMENTS295-298" and substituting the words and figures "REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS AND DOCUMENTS.....295-298b".

5. Section 19, subsection (1) is amended

- (a) as to clause (g)
 - (i) by striking out subclause (ii),
 - (ii) by striking out subclause (v),
- (b) by striking out clause (h) and substituting the following:
 - “(h) reinstate upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, any lease or any portion of a location described in any lease, that has been relinquished, cancelled or forfeited, if application for reinstatement is made within three months of the date of relinquishment, cancellation or forfeiture.”.

6. Section 24 is amended by adding immediately after subsection (7) the following:

“(8) Where a certificate of title has not been issued by the Registrar for any minerals vested in or belonging to the Crown in the right of the Province, the Minister may issue a notification in Form A in the Schedule in favour of Her Majesty in the right of the Province as represented by the Minister.

“(9) When a notification is issued under subsection (8) it shall be forwarded to the Registrar for the district in which the minerals are situate, and on receipt of the notification the Registrar shall, without fee, forthwith issue a certificate of title.”.

7. Section 28 is amended by striking out the word “Resources”.

8. Section 29 is amended by striking out the word “Resources”.

9. Reworded for clarification and see general note. Section 32 presently reads as follows:

"32. Upon the registration of an assignment of a divided portion of a lease, licence, permit, instrument or document, there shall be issued to the assignee a substitutional lease, licence, permit, instrument or document conforming with and subject to the provisions of this Act and any regulations made under authority of this Act and in force at the time of the registration of the assignment."

10. (a) This new subsection prohibits certain companies acquiring agreements by application or transfer. See general note ante re transfers of lease agreements.

(b) Make change of term used. Section 49, subsections (1) and (2) presently read:

"49. (1) A company shall be deemed not to acquire an agreement in whole or in part by application or assignment unless the company is

"(a) registered under the provisions of The Companies Act of the Province,

"(b) incorporated by an Act of the Province and approved by the Minister as a company that may acquire an agreement, or

"(c) incorporated under the Bank Act (Canada).

"(2) No partnership, syndicate or other unincorporated group shall acquire an agreement in whole or in part by application or assignment, in the name of the partnership, syndicate, or other unincorporated group."

11. This section would now prohibit minors acquiring lease agreements. Section 50 presently reads:

"50. (1) All covenants and conditions contained in or imposed by any agreement granted to any minor of the age of nineteen years or upwards are as binding upon the minor as if he were of full age.

"(2) A minor who has acquired from the Crown in the right of the Province an agreement relating to or affecting mines and minerals under the provisions of this Act shall not assign, transfer, sublet, or part with the possession of any such agreement, unless he has attained the full age of twenty-one years.

"(3) Upon attaining the age of twenty-one years, the minor shall forthwith ratify and confirm the agreement entered into by him during his minority with the Crown in the right of the Province, and failure to do so within a reasonable time after reaching his majority renders the agreement subject to summary cancellation in the discretion of the Minister."

12. Subsection (1) of section 62 presently reads:

"62. (1) This Part applies to all deposits of gold, silver and all naturally occurring useful minerals that are the property of the Crown, other than placer deposits, salt, sulphur, coal, petroleum, natural gas, bitumen and oil shales."

13. See general note. Section 117 presently reads:

"117. (1) Every application for a mineral claim and every other application, and every transfer or assignment of a mineral claim, or of an interest therein, acquired under the provisions of this Act shall contain, or shall have endorsed thereon, the place of residence and the post office address of the applicant, transferee or assignee, and his occupation.

"(2) No application, transfer or assignment shall be accepted or recorded unless it conforms with subsection (1)."

9. Section 32 is struck out and the following substituted:

“32. Upon the registration of a transfer of a portion of a location there shall be issued to the transferee a substitutional agreement with respect to the portion of the location transferred and the agreement from which the portion of the location has been transferred shall be amended accordingly.”.

10. Section 49 is amended

(a) by striking out subsection (1) and substituting the following:

“49. (1) A company shall not acquire an agreement in whole or in part by application or transfer unless the company is

“(a) registered under the provisions of The Companies Act of the Province,

“(b) incorporated by an Act of the Province and approved by the Minister as a company that may acquire an agreement,

“(c) incorporated under the Bank Act (Canada),

“(d) a railway company incorporated under an Act of Canada, or

“(e) an insurance company licensed under The Alberta Insurance Act.”.

(b) as to subsection (2) by striking out the word “assignment” and substituting the word “transfer”.

11. Section 50 is struck out and the following is substituted:

“50. No person under the age of twenty-one years shall acquire an agreement by application or transfer.”.

12. Section 62 is amended by striking out subsection (1) and substituting the following:

“62. (1) This Part applies to deposits of gold, silver and naturally occurring minerals that are the property of the Crown, other than placer deposits, salt, sulphur, coal, petroleum, natural gas, bituminous sands and shales.”.

13. Section 117 is struck out and the following substituted:

“117. (1) Every application for a mineral claim and every other application and every transfer of a mineral claim, or of an interest therein, shall contain, or shall have

14. See general note.

15. See general note.

16. See general note. Section 139 presently reads:

"139. The lessee shall not assign, transfer or sublet the rights described in his lease, or any part thereof, without the consent in writing of the Minister being first had and obtained."

17. See general note.

18. See general note.

19. See general note.

20. See general note.

21. See general note. Section 214 presently reads:

"214. The lessee shall not assign, transfer or sublet the rights described in his lease, or any part thereof, without the consent in writing of the Minister being first had and obtained."

endorsed thereon, the place of residence and the post office address of the applicant or transferee and his occupation.

“(2) No application or transfer shall be accepted or recorded unless it conforms with subsection (1).”.

14. Section 130, subsection (2) is amended by striking out the words “an assignment” and substituting the words “a transfer”.

15. Section 131 is amended

- (a) by striking out the words “an assignment” and substituting the words “a transfer”,
- (b) by striking out the words “such assignment” and substituting the words “such transfer”,
- (c) by striking out the words “the assignment” in clause (a) and by substituting the words “the transfer”.

16. Section 139 is repealed.

17. Section 153 is amended

- (a) as to subsection (1)
 - (i) by striking out the words “an assignment” and by substituting the words “a transfer”,
 - (ii) by striking out the words “such assignment” and substituting the words “such transfer”,
- (b) as to subsection (2) by striking out the word “assignment” and substituting the word “transfer”,
- (c) as to subsection (3) by striking out the word “assignment” and substituting the word “transfer”.

18. Section 154 is amended

- (a) as to subsection (1)
 - (i) by striking out the words “an assignment” and by substituting the words “a transfer”,
 - (ii) by striking out the words “such assignment” and by substituting the words “such transfer”,
- (b) as to subsection (2) by striking out the word “assignment” and substituting the word “transfer”.

19. Section 191, subsection (3) is amended by striking out the words “an assignment” and substituting the words “a transfer”.

20. Section 202, subsection (1) is amended by striking out the word “assignment” and substituting the word “transfer”.

21. Section 214 and the heading “Transfer of Lease” are repealed.

22. See clause 2 (g) of this Bill. Subsection (2) of section 261 presently reads:

"261.
 "(2) The portion of the location to be retained
 "(a) shall conform to section 236, or
 "(b) if a well on the location is capable of producing petroleum or natural gas in commercial quantity, shall be the area allocated to the well by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board for the purposes of production."

23. Section 262 presently reads as follows:

"262. (1) The lease shall in all cases include only the petroleum and natural gas that are the property of the Crown in the leased location and that may be obtained by the usual process of drilling.
 "(2) The lease shall not include the rights to bituminous sands, oil shales and tar sands, or to the petroleum that may be recovered from such sands or shales by the process of extraction that is customary in such cases."

24. The subject matter of this section will be dealt with under the proposed new Part VIII. Section 264 presently reads:

"264. The lessee shall not assign, transfer, sublet or part with the possession of the rights described in his lease, or any part thereof, without the consent in writing of the Minister being first had and obtained."

25. Reworded for clarification. Section 265 presently reads:

"265. Where a well has been drilled on a location and is producing petroleum in commercial quantity, the lessee may, with the consent in writing of the Minister, assign or transfer the area allocated to the well for purposes of production by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board."

26. See general note.

27. The subject matter of the present section is dealt with in Part IX. The new section provides for the determination of the rate of royalty payable to the Crown when Crown petroleum or natural gas is included in a unit operation. Section 267 presently reads:

"267. To secure the most efficient economic recovery of the petroleum resources in the area assigned to a well by regulations established under The Oil and Gas Resources Conservation Act, where the land of the Crown is less than the whole, the Minister, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, may participate in the joint development or co-operate in a unit operation of the area."

28. Reworded for clarification. Section 270 presently reads:

"270. Where the area assigned to a well for purposes of production by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board is only partially contained in a location, the royalty to be paid to the Crown shall be in the proportion that the area partially contained in the location bears to the whole of the area assigned to the well."

22. Section 261, subsection (2) is amended by striking out the words “area allocated to the well by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board for the purposes of production” and substituting the words “spacing unit of the well”.

23. Section 262 is struck out and the following substituted:

“262. (1) The lease grants the right to the petroleum and natural gas that are the property of the Crown in the location.

“(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) the lease does not grant the right to bituminous sands or to the petroleum or natural gas that may be recovered therefrom.”.

24. Section 264 is repealed.

25. Section 265 is struck out and the following substituted:

“265. Where a well has been drilled on a location the lessee may, with the consent in writing of the Minister, transfer to himself or to any other person the portion of the location comprising the spacing unit of the well.”.

26. Section 266 is amended by striking out the word “assign” and substituting the word “transfer”.

27. Section 267 is struck out and the following substituted:

“267. Where the Crown is a party to a unit operation, the area of the unit shall be deemed a location for the purpose of determining the rate of royalty applicable to the portion of the production allocated to any tract contained in an agreement.”.

28. Section 270 is struck out and the following substituted:

“270. Where the spacing unit of a well is only partially contained in a location, the royalty to be paid to the Crown shall be in the proportion that the acreage of the part of the spacing unit contained in the location bears to the whole acreage of the spacing unit, and if the well is not on the location, it shall be deemed to be on the location.”.

29. Reworded for clarification. Subsection (3) of section 273 reads at present:

"273.

"(3) On the failure of the lessee to perform such requirements, the Minister may immediately withdraw from the lease the legal subdivision on which the well was drilled or the area that has been allocated to the well for purposes of production by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board, and all rights of the lessee in and to such portion of the lease thereupon cease and determine and the lessee is not entitled to any compensation whatsoever, but the lessee is relieved from future responsibility for the abandonment of the well."

30. See note to clause 3.

31. (a) "spacing unit" now defined, see note to clause 2 (g).

(b) Refers to Board under its proposed new title i.e. Oil and Gas Conservation Board. Subsections (2) and (3) of section 282 presently read:

"282.

"(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may authorize the Minister to grant, upon such terms, conditions and stipulations as may be prescribed, a lease of natural gas rights that are the property of the Crown in lands or zones within lands, if,

"(a) in the opinion of the Lieutenant Governor in Council the natural gas that may be obtained is essential in the operation of a natural gas utility, or

"(b) the location is required to complete a spacing unit under The Oil and Gas Resources Conservation Act, for a commercially productive natural gas well.

"(3) In a disposition made under this section "natural gas" for purposes other than those dealing with the computation, levy and collection of royalties,

"(a) means the production from any well that, in the opinion of the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board, initially produces gas either alone or with oil at a gas-oil ratio of ten thousand cubic feet to the barrel or higher, and

"(b) does not include any production that may be obtained from any well that, in the opinion of the Board, initially produces gas with oil at a lower gas-oil ratio."

32. See note to clause 31.

33. This matter is to be dealt with in the proposed new Part VIII. Section 290 presently reads:

"290. The licensee shall not assign, transfer, sublet or part with the possession of the said licence or any renewal thereof without first having the written consent of the Minister."

29. Section 273 is amended by striking out subsection (3) and substituting the following:

“(3) On the failure of the lessee to perform any requirement under subsection (2), the Minister may withdraw from the agreement the portion of the location comprising the spacing unit.

“(4) Upon the withdrawal by the Minister of a portion of a location from an agreement under subsection (3) the lessee and every other person

“(a) cease to have any rights in and to the portion of the location so withdrawn,

“(b) are not entitled to any compensation whatsoever, and

“(c) are relieved from further responsibility for the well.”.

30. Section 274 is amended by striking out the word “Resources”.

31. Section 282 is amended

(a) as to subsection (2), clause (b) by striking out the words “under The Oil and Gas Resources Conservation Act,”,

(b) as to subsection (3), clause (a) by striking out the words “Petroleum and Natural Gas” and substituting the words “Oil and Gas”.

32. Section 287, subsection (1) is amended by striking out the words “Petroleum and Natural Gas” and substituting the words “Oil and Gas”.

33. Section 290 is repealed.

34. Reworded for clarification and "assignment" replaced by term "transfer".

Section 295. New, but the terms "documents" and "registration" were formerly section 2 (k) and section 2 (dd), respectively with modifications. Clause (c) is new.

Section 296. Subsection (1) replaces present section 295 (2) which reads:

"295.

"(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and of the regulations made under this Act, an assignment of an agreement that the lessee is not prohibited from assigning or agreeing to assign by any provision of this Act or any regulation or by the terms of the agreement may be registered with the Minister."

Subsection (2) replaces section 295 (3) which reads:

"295.

"(3) The Minister may refuse to register an assignment unless

"(a) it is unconditional,

"(b) its execution has been proved to the satisfaction of the Minister,

and

"(c) it is in a form satisfactory to the Minister."

Subsections (3), (4), (5) and (7) are new.

34. Part VIII is struck out and the following substituted:

"PART VIII

"REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS AND DOCUMENTS

"295. In this Part,

- "(a) "document" means an instrument pertaining to any right granted under an agreement, other than a transfer;
- "(b) "registration" or "register" means
 - "(i) the entering in a book authorized by the Minister for that purpose of a transfer or document, and
 - "(ii) the endorsing on or the attaching to the agreement affected of a memorandum evidencing an entry under subclause (i) ;
- "(c) "transfer" means an instrument in Form E in the Schedule or to a like effect and capable of registration under section 296.

"296. (1) A transfer with respect to an agreement that the lessee is not prohibited from transferring or agreeing to transfer by any provision of this Act or any regulation or by the terms of the agreement, may be registered by the Minister if the transfer conveys

- "(a) the whole of the agreement,
- "(b) a specified undivided interest in the agreement, or
- "(c) a portion of the location contained in the agreement.

"(2) The Minister may in his discretion refuse to register a transfer submitted for registration, if

- "(a) it is not executed by the transferor and the transferee in such manner and accompanied by such proof of execution as is satisfactory to the Minister,
- "(b) registration thereof would result in more than five persons being the holder of the agreement,
- "(c) an undivided interest conveyed is less than a ten per cent undivided interest in the agreement, or
- "(d) the prescribed fee is not paid.

"(3) If a transfer is executed by an attorney or agent, the authority of the attorney or agent in a form satisfactory to the Minister shall be submitted to the Minister.

"(4) Before a transfer may be registered the lessee's copy of the agreement shall be submitted to the Minister.

"(5) On the registration of a transfer, the transferee becomes the holder of the estate, right and interest so transferred.

Subsection (6) replaces section 295 (5) which reads:

"295.
"(5) An assignment registered under this Part is valid against and prior to any unregistered assignment or subsequently registered assignment."

Section 297 is section 298, which reads:

"298. (1) A lessee may assign an agreement to himself and another person or persons, and upon registration of the assignment is entitled to the interest that the assignment purports to convey to him to the same extent as if he were not the assignor.

"(2) Two or more persons, being the lessees of an agreement, may assign the agreement to one or more of them, who upon registration of the assignment are entitled to the interest that the assignment purports to convey to him or them to the same extent as if he or they were not assignors."

Section 298 is section 296 in part, which reads:

"296. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

"(a) providing for the registration with the Minister of documents affecting agreements,

"(b) prescribing the form of documents that may be registered and the conditions under which they may be registered,

"(c) delimiting the effect of the registration of any document, and for this purpose, suspending or modifying the provisions of subsection (5) of section 295, and

"(d) prescribing fees for the registration of documents and for services supplied by any registration office in the Department."

Section 298a is section 297, which reads:

"297. Notwithstanding anything in this Act or in any regulations made under this Act, where, by an instrument made pursuant to section 82 of the Bank Act (Canada), a lease or licence from the Crown of petroleum or natural gas or both, or any interest in such lease or licence, is assigned, transferred or set over as security to a chartered bank by the lessee of or by a person having an interest in the lease or licence, there may be registered with the Minister, upon payment of such fee as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council,

"(a) an original of the instrument giving the security,

"(b) a copy of the instrument giving the security, which shall be certified by an officer or employee of the bank to be a true copy, or

"(c) a caveat in respect of the rights of the bank."

Section 298b is in part section 296; see note to section 296.

“(6) A transfer registered under this Part is valid against and prior to any unregistered transfer.

“(7) In so far as a transfer affects the Crown, the transfer shall be deemed to take effect from the time of its registration.

“297. (1) A lessee may transfer an agreement to himself and another person or persons, and upon registration of the transfer is entitled to the interest that the transfer purports to convey to him to the same extent as if he were not the transferor.

“(2) Two or more persons, being the lessee of an agreement, may transfer the agreement to one or more of them, who upon registration of the transfer are entitled to the interest that the transfer purports to convey to him or them to the same extent as if he or they were not the transferor.

“298. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

- “(a) providing for the registration of documents,
- “(b) prescribing the nature of the documents that may be registered, and
- “(c) prescribing the conditions under which documents may be registered.

“298a. Where, by a document made pursuant to section 82 of the Bank Act (Canada), an agreement from the Crown with respect to petroleum or natural gas or both or any interest therein is assigned, transferred or set over as security to a chartered bank by the holder of the agreement or by a person having an interest therein, there may be registered by the Minister upon payment of the prescribed fee

- “(a) an original of the document,
- “(b) a copy of the document certified by an officer or employee of the bank to be a true copy thereof, or
- “(c) a caveat in respect of the rights of the bank.

“298b. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may from time to time establish a tariff of fees pertaining to

- “(a) the registration of transfers,
- “(b) the registration of documents, and
- “(c) any services supplied by the Department in connection with transfers and documents.”.

35. See note to clause 2 (a). Subsection (2) rewords present section 304 (b) for greater clarity. Present section 304 reads as follows:

“304. In this Part,

“(a) “bituminous sands” means the bituminous sands that occur in in the McMurray formation, being the stratigraphic formation lying between the Clearwater formation above and the Upper Devonian carbonate sediments below and containing hydrocarbons and as further defined by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board in any case where a question arises;

“(b) “bituminous sands rights” means the right to mine, quarry, work, remove, treat and dispose of the bituminous sands and products thereof, but does not include the right to drill for petroleum or natural gas.”.

36. Adds a new form of transfer of agreement.

35. Section 304 is struck out and the following substituted:

“304. (1) If any question arises as to the meaning of bituminous sands given in clause (c) of subsection (1) of section 2, the question shall be referred to the Minister whose decision thereon is final.

“(2) In this Part “bituminous sands rights” means

“(a) the right to mine, quarry, work, remove, treat or process bituminous sands including the recovery of any products therefrom whether above or below the surface, and

“(b) the right to dispose of bituminous sands and any products recovered therefrom.”.

36. The Schedule is amended by adding after Form D the following:

“FORM E

“(Section 295)
