BILL 20

A Bill to Terminate the Granting of Further Assistance
Under Certain Welfare Statutes

---

HON. MR. JORGENSEN

Explanatory Note

General. In 1960 The Public Welfare Act was amended (1960, c. 86) to provide a new form of assistance under the name of "social allowances" which is intended to replace many of the forms of assistance presently in use. Future assistance given by the Department of Public Welfare will be in the form of social allowances and no new pensions or allowances are to be granted under the Acts named in clause 2 of the Bill. Persons presently receiving assistance under those Acts may continue to receive it under them.
