BILL 89

A Bill to amend The Public Service Pension Act

HON. MR. HOOKE

Explanatory Note

2. Clause (d) of subsection (1) of section 14 is amended to allow military service in the Korean War to be deemed pensionable service under the provisions of the section.

Clause (d1) of subsection (1) of section 14 is amended to clarify pensionable service in the case of war veterans.

The proposed new subsection (1a) gives the Board a discretion to extend the time from when a veteran is discharged to when he is employed by the Government, the Legislative Assembly or a party to a reciprocal agreement under section 32 to allow the veteran to apply his military service to pensionable service.

Subsection (3) is amended and a new subsection (4) is added to clarify the maximum number of pensionable years of service under the Act and to relieve against a hardship imposed by the present subsection (3). Clause (d1) of subsection (1), and subsection (3) of section 14 presently read:

"14. (1) For the purposes this Act, pensionable service shall be deemed to include

- (d1) in the case of a person who was not in the employ of the Government or the Legislative Assembly at the time of his enlistment, any period of service in the British or Allied Forces during World War II
 - (i) if the date of the commencement of his employment by the Government or the Legislative Assembly was within three months of the date of his discharge from military service, and
 - (ii) if he pays into the General Revenue Fund, in such manner and on such terms as the Board may direct, an amount equal to ten per cent of the annual salary paid to him by the Government at the commencement of his employment multiplied by the number of years of his military service, computed to the nearest complete month thereof, together with interest on such amount from the date of his enlistment to the date of completion of such payment in full,
- and"

"(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no portion of any employee's service prior to his attaining the age of thirty years shall be deemed to be pensionable service, except in the case of retirement of an employee under the condition specified in subsection (1) of section 11, in which case all contributory service and one-half of any non-contributory service prior to the employee attaining the age of thirty years shall be deemed to be pensionable service."

BILL

No. 89 of 1963

An Act to amend The Public Service Pension Act

(Assented to _____, 1963)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The Public Service Pension Act, being chapter 264 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended.
