BILL 41

A Bill to amend The Treasury Department Act

HON. MR. HINMAN

Explanatory Note

1. The Treasury Department Act, R.S.A. 1955, chapter 343, amended.

2. Section 59, subsection (1) presently reads:

“59. (1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council

(a) when he deems it conducive to the public good, and

(b) when great public inconvenience or great hardship and injustice to any person would otherwise ensue, may remit any tax or fee payable to Her Majesty and imposed or authorized by and relating to any matter within the authority of the Legislative Assembly or any forfeiture or pecuniary penalty so imposed for any contravention of the laws relating to the revenue or to the management of any public work producing revenue, although any part of such forfeiture or penalty be given by law to the informer or prosecutor or to any other party.”.

Section 59, subsection (1) has remained in the same form since it was first enacted in 1906. It is recast here primarily to clarify the instances where remissions may be granted.
