

No. 91

1st Session, 15th Legislature, Alberta
12 Elizabeth II

BILL 91

A Bill to amend The Exemptions Act

HON. MR. MANNING

Explanatory Note

1. The Exemptions Act, R.S.A. 1955, c. 104, amended.

2. (a) Section 2, clauses (e) and (f) presently read:

“2. The following real and personal property of an execution debtor is exempt from seizure under any writ of execution:

.....

(e) one tractor;

(f) either

(i) one automobile valued at a sum not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars, or

(ii) one motor truck, required by the execution debtor for agricultural purposes or in his trade or calling;

.....”.

Clause (e) is amended to conform with the terminology in clause (f) regarding cars and trucks.

(b) The new clause (l) will exempt mobile homes under $3,000 in much the same terms as the exemption for houses under $8,000.

3. Commencement of Act.

BILL

No. 91 of 1964

An Act to amend The Exemptions Act

(Assented to _____, 1964)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The Exemptions Act is hereby amended.

2. Section 2 is amended

(a) by striking out clause (e) and by substituting the following:

(e) one tractor, if it is required by the execution debtor for agricultural purposes or in his trade or calling;

(b) by adding the following clause after clause (k):

(l) the mobile home actually occupied by the execution debtor if the value of the mobile home does not exceed three thousand dollars, but if the value does exceed three thousand dollars, the mobile home may be offered for sale and if the amount bid at the sale after deducting all costs and expenses exceeds three thousand dollars the mobile home shall be sold and the amount received from the sale to the extent of the exemption shall be paid at once to the execution debtor and shall until then be exempt from seizure under any legal process, but no such sale shall be carried out or possession given to any person until the execution debtor has received three thousand dollars.

3. This Act comes into force on the day upon which it is assented to.
