Property of the City of Edmonton

HON. MR. HOOKE

Explanatory Note

General. The Agreement mentioned in this Bill provides that the northern most 200 feet of the property being sold is not to be used for graves but may be used for a mausoleum.

The property of the Strathcona Cemetery Company was acquired by the City of Edmonton in 1941, and part of it is still used as the Mount Pleasant Cemetery. This Bill would enable the use of the affected land for graves.
