BILL 110

1969

An Act to amend The Gaols and Prisons Act

(Assented to _____, 1969)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The Gaols and Prisons Act is hereby amended.

2. (1) The following section is added after section 19:

20. (1) There is hereby established a Provincial Parole Board (hereinafter called "the Board"), consisting of not less than three and not more than nine members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) The Board, with respect to persons detained in a provincial gaol who are serving sentences for contravening any Act of the Province or a regulation or by-law thereunder, may grant, refuse to grant, suspend or revoke parole in accordance with the regulations under subsection (3).

(3) For the purpose of setting guidelines for the operation of the Board the Lieutenant Governor in Council may specify

- (a) the persons or classes of persons eligible to apply for parole,
- (b) the manner in which a person may apply for parole,
- (c) the terms and conditions attached to a parole,
- (d) the types of parole, and
- (e) the penalties for a breach of parole, or any of the terms and conditions attached to it.

(4) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may delegate all or any of his powers to the Board.

(5) The sentence of a person on parole continues in force and effect until its expiration according to law.

(2) This section comes into force on a date to be fixed by proclamation.

Explanatory Notes

- 1. This Bill amends chapter 127 of the Revised Statutes.
- 2. Provincial Parole Board established.

3. (1) The following section is added after section 20:

21. The National Parole Board is hereby authorized to exercise in Alberta the jurisdiction described in section 5A of the Parole Act (Canada).

(2) This section comes into force on a date to be fixed by proclamation.

3. National Parole Board to grant parole on sentences for provincial offences in cases when parole is to be considered for persons serving sentences for both provincial and federal offences.
