Explanatory Notes

1. Chapter 23, Statutes of Alberta, 1907 amended.

2. Section 2 presently reads:

2. The object of the society shall be to encourage the study of the history of Alberta and Canada, to rescue from oblivion the memories of the original inhabitants, the early missionaries, fur traders, explorers, and settlers of the north and west of Canada, to obtain and preserve narratives in print, manuscript or otherwise of their travels, adventures, labours and observations, to secure and preserve minerals, archaeological curiosities and objects generally illustrative of the civil, religious, literary and natural history of the country and to establish a museum and library.

The amendment up-dates the purposes of the society.

3. Section 4 presently reads:

4. The annual meeting of the society shall be held in every year during the month of February for the election of officers notice of the time and place of such meeting to be given by the secretary to each of the members by letter addressed to his or her last known place of abode at least twenty days before the date of such meeting and at such annual meeting members shall be entitled to vote for the election of officers by proxy.

The amendment permits greater flexibility in holding the annual meeting of the Society.

4. Section 5 presently reads:

5. The present officers of the society shall be deemed to be the officers of the society until their successors are elected.

The effect of this section expired long ago.
