BILL 200

1976

THE CASH DISCOUNT ACT

(Assented to , 1976)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. For the purposes of this Act,

- (a) "credit card" means a credit card owned, franchised, operated or financed by a person other than the merchant accepting its use for payment;
- (b) "lending institution" means any organization that owns, franchises, operates or finances a credit card;
- (c) "merchant" means any person owning or operating a retail or wholesale business supplying goods or services for sale or rent;
- (d) "Minister" means the Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs.

2. (1) Any merchant offering goods or services for sale or rent and who offers to accept payment therefor by credit card shall at the same time offer to accept payment for such goods or services by cash, certified cheque or money order at a price which is not less than two per cent less than the price quoted for payment by credit card.

(2) For the purposes of this Act a person who advertises by any means or at any place the general acceptance of a credit card at his place of business shall be deemed to be offering any of the goods or services normally sold at or rented from his place of business by credit card.

3. All merchants shall display in the place where goods or services are being offered to the public a sign stating the price of such goods or services, unless each item bears a price tag or some method of pricing visible to the consumer.

4. No person may enter into or continue any agreement with a merchant which purports to forbid the merchant from offering the discount described in section 2 or places

Explanatory Notes
