

BILL

No. 84 of 1910 (Second Session).

An Act to Amend the Statute Law.

(Assented to 1910.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Statute Law Amendment Act, 1910."

2. Section 3 of chapter 34 of the Consolidated Ordinances <sup>1907, c. 34</sup> of the North-West Territories, being An Ordinance respecting Distress for Rent and Extra-Judicial Seizure, is amended by striking out the word "Supreme" where it occurs in the seventh line thereof, and substituting therefor the word "District."

2. The said Ordinance is further amended by adding to the schedule thereto the following:

"7. All necessary and reasonable disbursements for removing and storing goods and removing and keeping live stock, and <sup>and</sup> all other disbursements which in the opinion of the judge before whom a question as to the amount of the fees to be allowed under this Act may come for decision, are reasonable and necessary."

3. Section 23 of The Bills of Sale Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "any judge of the Supreme Court of the Territories," where the same occur therein, and substituting therefor the words "a judge of the District Court of the judicial district within which any mortgage or transfer or authority to take or renew the same is or should be registered or renewed."

4. Section 2 of The Marriage Ordinance is amended by adding after the word "respectively" in the eighth line thereof the following words:

"any catechist, missionary or theological student duly appointed or commissioned by the governing body of any church or religious denomination with special authority to solemnize marriages."

2. The following new section is added to the said Marriage Ordinance:

"21. Any marriages heretofore solemnized by any such catechist, missionary or theological student as may by the terms of this amending Act, solemnize or perform the ceremony of marriage are hereby declared to have been and to be valid, legal and binding to the same extent as if this amending Act had been passed prior to such marriage."

5. The Companies Ordinance, being chapter 61 of The Consolidated Ordinances, as amended by chapter 5 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1909, is further amended by repealing section 57a and substituting therefor the following:

"57a. Every company heretofore or hereafter incorporated to which this Ordinance applies, shall, if it proposes to offer any shares, debentures or other securities to the public for subscription, file a prospectus before such offer is made; and in respect of subscribers for shares in any company to whom shares are allotted at the time when an allotment is made to a number of subscribers which increases to ten or more, the total number of subscribers to whom shares have been allotted, and in respect of subscribers to whom shares are allotted after shares have been allotted to ten or more subscribers therefor (exclusive in both cases of the persons who signed the memorandum of association) the company shall be conclusively presumed to have intended to offer its shares for public subscription before such allotment was made."

Sec. 57a
now reads as substituted

2. Section 61 of the said Ordinance is amended by adding thereto the following subsection:

Sec. 61, new
added words of

"(2) Every company the objects whereof were restricted as aforesaid shall be deemed to have the following but, except as in this Ordinance otherwise expressed, no greater powers, that is to say:

- "(a) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold within the Province of Alberta, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining land, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of them, or any interest therein;
- "(b) To dig for, mine, get, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyze, reduce, amalgamate, prepare for market and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, coal, coke, gas, stone, oil and other minerals, and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds whether belonging to the company or not, and to render the same marketable and to buy, sell and deal in the same or any of them;
- "(c) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, coking, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches;
- "(d) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange or otherwise, such timber land or leases, timber claims, licenses to cut timber, surface rights, and rights of way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals and oil, coking ovens, gas works, buildings, machinery, plant or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying out of any of the objects of the company;
- "(e) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate on the property of the company or on property controlled by the company any canals, trails, roads, ways and tramways, bridges and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing works, smelting works, coking ovens, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electric works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plants, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the company, and with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the company, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects required by the company or its workmen and servants;

"(f) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purpose of the company;

"(g) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, minerals or mineral lands sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as in section 63 of The Companies Ordinance mentioned, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same;

"(h) To enter into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section 63 of The Companies Ordinance is authorized to carry on;

"(i) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under section 63 of The Companies Ordinance is authorized to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purpose thereof;

"(j) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects."

3. Subsection 4 of section 108 of the said Ordinance is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:

"4. Every application, verbal or written, for stock, debentures or other securities in any company shall with respect to all persons to whom any allotment has been made after the time at which such company is required to file a prospectus, be deemed to have been induced by the prospectus as against the company and the signatories thereto."

4. The following new section is added to the said Ordinance as section 109a:

"109a. No judgment shall be given in favour of the plaintiff in any proceeding by a company or its assigns or any liquidator to recover from any person, to whom shares in the company have been allotted after the time the company is required to file a prospectus, any balance due upon such shares unless it be shown either that before such subscription was made the subscriber received a copy of the prospectus or that a copy of such prospectus was received by him a sufficient length of time before the allotment was made with a notice in writing that he might withdraw the subscription before a day therein named."

5. Section 5 of The Trust Companies Ordinance is amended as follows:

1. By striking out the words "the Supreme Court" where the same occur therein and substituting therefor the words "any court in the province having power to appoint executors, trustees, assignees or committees, or to grant letters of administration or guardianship."

2. By adding thereto the following subsection:

"(ii) Any appointments of executors, trustees, assignees or committees, or any grants of letters of administration or guardianship heretofore made to any trust company approved as hereinbefore provided by the Lieutenant Governor in Council or by any court in the province having jurisdiction to make such appointments or grants shall have the same force and effect as though the same had been made after the passing of this Act."

7. Subclause 19 of section 7 of The Interpretation Act is repealed and the following subclause is substituted therefor:

"19. The expression 'holiday' includes Sunday, New Year's Day, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Easter Monday, the twenty-fourth day of May or when such day falls on a Sunday the twenty-fifth day of May to be known as Victoria Day, Christmas Day, the birthday or the day fixed by proclamation for the celebration of the birthday of the reigning Sovereign, Dominion Day, Labour Day, Arbour Day being the second Friday in May or in lieu thereof such other day as may in each year be proclaimed a public holiday for the planting of forest and other trees, and any other day appointed by proclamation for a general feast or thanksgiving."

8. Section 94 of The Act respecting Police Magistrate and Justices of the Peace is amended by adding the following proviso thereto:

"And provided further that at the request of the Attorney General any justice of the peace shall cause or make any summons or warrant issued by him to be returnable before any other justice or justices of the peace in the province, or before himself with any such justice or justices of the peace, or shall request any such justice or justices to take part in the matter with him, or dispose of the matter alone so far as such justice or justices has or have jurisdiction."

9. The Land Titles Act, being chapter 21 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1906, is amended as follows:

1. By adding to section 17 the following as subsection (1):

"(2) Every registrar shall when required furnish under seal an abstract of title to any land in his district in the form now in use in the Land Titles Offices in the Province of Alberta."

"(3) Every registrar shall when required furnish under seal a general certificate in the form now in use in the Land Titles Offices in the Province of Alberta."

2. Section 51 of said Act is amended by striking out the word "Dominion" in the fifth line thereof, and substituting therefor the word "Alberta."

3. Subsection 1 of section 121 of said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

"(1) Any owner subdividing land, for which a certificate of title has been granted, for the purpose of selling or conveying the same in allotments shall deposit with the registrar a plan in triplicate, on tracing linen not exceeding twenty-nine inches in width, of the land on a scale of not less than one inch to every four chains, and the scale shall be marked on the plan; the plan shall be a fair specimen of draughtsmanship, to the satisfaction of the examiner of surveys, and shall not be accepted if any part of the lettering thereon has been done by means of rubber stamps or machine printing; the plan shall show in black india ink the boundaries, numbers and other distinguishing marks of the lots laid out thereby, and shall show the number of the section, township and range or the number of the river lot, or the name of the district or reservation, as the case may be, in which the land lies, also the number of the meridian west of which the said range, river lot, district or reservation is situated, as well as all boundary lines of the quarter section, section, sections or river lot, which contain the subdivided land shown on the said plan; the plan shall show all monuments, posts or marks by which the outside boundaries of the land shown on the plan are determined; where the plan is a subdivision of a lot or lots on a former plan, it shall show in orange ink or in scarlet vermilion paint the numbers or other distinguishing marks of the lot or lots subdivided and the boundary lines of such lot or lots; the plan shall also show distinctly all roads, streets, passages, thorough-fares, squares or reservations appropriated or set apart for public use, with the courses and widths thereof respectively, the length and width of all lots, and the courses of all division lines between the respective lots within the same, together with such other information as is required to show distinctly the position of the land being subdivided; each lot shall be marked with a distinct number or symbol; and the plan shall further show the courses of all streams of water within the limits of the land included in the plan; and every plan shall be signed by the owner or his agent, or where the owner is a corporation by the chief officer of the corporation, and certified in black india ink in the form "C" in the schedule to this Act by an Alberta land surveyor, whose respective signatures shall be duly witnessed and attested in the manner heretofore provided for the attestation of instruments to be registered under this Act. One triplicate of the plan shall forthwith be transmitted by the registrar to the Department of Public Works."

4. Said section 124 is further amended by adding thereto the following subsection:

"(5) The registrar shall not accept transfers of parcels of land within the limits of any plan registered in the land titles office under this section, unless the boundaries of such parcels are delimited on the plan, or until a new plan shall have been registered under this section showing the said boundaries and distinguishing the said parcels by numbers or letters; if, in his opinion, the registration of such transfer would have the effect of nullifying the provisions of the preceding subsection."

5. Section 126 of the said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

"126. Upon the filing in the land titles office of the plans of surveys of any road as provided for in The Public Works Act, the surface rights in the lands shown on such plans so far as the same are not Dominion lands shall vest in the Crown in the right of the province, subject to the right of any person who has acquired any interest in the surface rights in the said lands so far as the same are taken for any road allowance diversion or new road, to compensation for such interest."

"(2) Notwithstanding anything heretofore contained in this Act, the filing in the land titles office of the plans of surveys of any road as provided for in The Public Works Act shall be deemed to vest and to have vested only the surface rights in the lands shown on such plans so far as the same are not Dominion lands in the Crown in the right of the province subject to the right of any person who has acquired any interest in the surface rights in the said lands, so far as the same are taken for any road allowance diversion or new road, to compensation for such interest."

6. The said Act is further amended by striking out form "C" and substituting therefor the following:

"I, _____, an Alberta land surveyor, do solemnly declare that I have personally superintended the actual surveying operation on the ground represented by this plan and that this plan accurately shows the manner in which the land included therein has been surveyed and subdivided by me, and that the said plan is prepared in accordance with the provisions of The Land Titles Act.

Dated at _____, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

Signed in the presence of _____

A.B. _____
Alberta Land Surveyor.

10. The Liquor License Ordinance, being chapter 89 of The Consolidated Ordinances, is amended as follows:

1. Subsection 5 of section 3 of chapter 5 of the Statutes of 1909 is declared to be in force on, from and after the 1st day of July, 1909, and it is further declared that subsection 2 of section 35 which was repealed by said subsection 5 of section 3 of chapter 5 of the Statutes of 1909 was in force up to the said first day of July, 1909.

2. By adding to section 47 of the said Ordinance the following clauses:

"(a) In lieu of the security to be given as provided in subsection 1 thereof, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may direct that an agreement may be entered into between His Majesty and any Guarantee Company or other company authorized to enter into contracts of suretyship or to issue policies for guaranteeing the good behaviour of persons required to furnish such security, by which the company may undertake in consideration of a fixed annual payment or otherwise, to indemnify His Majesty against the nonpayment of any fines or penalties or costs which the person to whom a license is granted or to whom any license is transferred may be ordered to pay during the term for which the license is granted or during which such person is the holder of a license, to the amount set out in the said agreement or in any schedule attached thereto;

"(b) It shall not be necessary that a separate agreement shall be entered into for each applicant for a license, or a transfer of a license, but the agreement with such company may provide that upon notice being given by the Attorney General, to the company, that the company is required to furnish security for any such applicant or transferee and upon the acknowledgment in writing of receipt of such notice by the company the company shall become liable to the amount set out in such notice;

"(c) The amount chargeable to each applicant for such guarantee shall be stated in the agreement and shall be paid by the applicant to the Provincial Treasurer before the issue of the license."

3. Section 57 of the said Ordinance is amended as follows:

1. By striking out the words "respecting licenses" where they occur therein, and substituting therefor the words "of the Ordinance."

2. By adding thereto the following subsection:

"2. For the purpose of this section all the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be mandatory and not directory."

"(3) An appeal shall lie from the decision of a judge under this section to the Supreme Court of Alberta sitting en banc, and such appeal shall be governed by the rules applicable to appeals from judgments in actions in the said Court."

Provided, however, that these amendments to section 57 shall not apply to or affect any proceedings now pending under said section.

4. By adding to subsection (3) of section 80 of said Ordinance the following:

"and the onus shall be on any person charged with an offence under this section to prove that he did not know the person to whom said liquor was sold, was an unlicensed person"

5. By striking out the first nine lines of section 81 of the said Ordinance and substituting therefor the following:

"81. Any person who shall keep or have in any house or other place whatsoever any liquor for the purpose of sale, barter or distribution without the license therefor by law required, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and on summary conviction shall be liable to the penalties provided by section 85 of this Ordinance."

"(2) Any sale or other disposal of liquor by any association, body of persons, or club, not incorporated by special Ordinance of the North-West Territories or by special Act of the Province of Alberta, shall be a violation of section 85 of this Ordinance."

6. Section 81 of the said Ordinance is further amended by striking out in the sixth line of the provision to the said section the words "in packages of more than six ounces at any one time"

7. Section 85 of the said Ordinance is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

"85. Any person who sells or barter liquor of any kind without the license therefor by law required shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction thereof shall be liable; for the first offence to a penalty of not less than $100.00 nor more than $250.00, or to imprisonment for a term of not less than two months nor more than six months, and in default of payment of the fine forthwith after conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than two months nor more than six months; for a second offence to a penalty of not less than $250.00 nor more than $500.00 or to imprisonment for a term of not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment, and in default of payment of the fine forthwith after conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than three months nor more than twelve months; for a third or subsequent offence, to a penalty of not less than $500.00 nor more than $1,000.00, and to imprisonment for a term of not less than nine months nor more than two years, and in default of payment of the said fine forthwith after conviction to a term of not less than nine months nor more than two years."

8. Section 98 of said Ordinance as amended by section 26 of chapter 9 of the Statutes of 1907 is further amended by adding thereto the following subsections:

"(3) Any inspector, policeman, constable or officer who has in pursuance of this or the next preceding section entered any unlicensed premises upon which he seizes or from which he removes any liquor as aforesaid may demand the name and address of any person found upon such premises; and the inspector, policeman or officer if such person refuses to give his name and address or if the inspector, policeman, constable or officer has reasonable grounds to suppose that the name or address given is false may examine such person further as to the correctness of such name or address and may if such person fails upon such demand to give his name and address or to answer satisfactorily the questions put to him by the inspector, policeman, constable or officer apprehend him without warrant, and carry him as soon as possible before a justice of the peace.

"(4) Any person found upon such premises who upon the demand of the inspector, policeman, constable or officer refuses to give his name and address, or gives a false name or address, or gives false information with respect to such name or address, or fails to answer satisfactorily the questions put to him by the inspector, policeman, constable or officer, shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty dollars and in default of payment forthwith to imprisonment for a period of not less than ten nor more than twenty days.

"(5) Where an inspector, policeman, constable or officer finds liquor in transit or in course of delivery upon the premises of any railway company, or at any wharf, railway station, coast express office, warehouse or other place and believes that such liquor is to be sold or kept for sale in contravention of this Act, he may forthwith without warrant seize and remove the same.

"(6) Any inspector, policeman, constable or officer if he believes that liquor intended for sale or to be kept for sale in violation of this Act is contained in any vehicle on a public highway or elsewhere or is concealed upon the lands of any person shall have power without warrant to search for such liquor wherever he may suspect it to be and if need be by force and may search the person himself and may seize and remove any liquor found and the vessels in which the same is kept.

"(7) Where liquor has been seized under subsection (5) or (6) hereof, the person seizing the same shall lay an information under oath before a justice of the peace, who shall thereupon issue his summons directed to the consignee or owner of the liquor, calling upon him to appear at a time and place named in the summons and show cause why such liquor should not be dealt with as provided by subsection (2) hereof.

"(8) It shall be sufficient service of the summons if the same is served personally or left with some person apparently over sixteen years of age at the residence of such consignee or owner.

"(9) The summons shall be made returnable within thirty days after the service thereof.

"(10) At the time and place named in the summons any person who claims that the liquor is his property and that same is not intended to be sold or kept for sale in violation of this Act may appear and give evidence before the justice, and the justice shall receive such evidence and the evidence of the person who seized the liquor and such other evidence as may be adduced in the same manner as upon a complaint or information made under this Act.

"(11) If no person claims to be the owner of the liquor or if the magistrate disallows such claim and finds that it was intended that such liquor was to be sold or kept for sale in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act he may order that such liquor and any vessels containing the same shall be forfeited to His Majesty to be sold or otherwise dealt with in such manner as the Attorney General may direct.

"(12) The liquor so seized may under the direction of the Attorney General be sold to any hotel or wholesale firm or to any and the proceeds after payment of any lawful costs of carriage and the expenses of such seizure and sale shall forthwith be transmitted to the Attorney General."

9. Section 118 of the said Ordinance is amended by adding <sup>Section 118</sup> thereto the following subsection:

"(2) In any prosecution under said Ordinance, or amendments thereto, the production by the inspector or any other officer (as defined by the Criminal Code) of a certificate signed or purporting to be signed by the provincial analyst as to the analysis of any liquor shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in such certificate and of the authority of the provincial analyst, without any proof of his appointment or signature."

(10) Subsection 1 of section 121 of said Ordinance as amended <sup>Subsection 1 of section 121</sup> by section 17 of chapter 2 of the Ordinances of 1900, and further <sup>amended</sup> amended by section 31 of chapter 9 of the Statutes of 1907, is further amended by inserting after the word "licensees" in the sixth line thereof the words "licensed druggists."

(11) Subsection 1 of section 122 of said Ordinance as amended <sup>Subsection 1 of section 122</sup> by section 17 of chapter 2 of the Ordinances of 1900, and further <sup>amended</sup> amended by section 32 of chapter 9 of the Statutes of 1907, is further amended by inserting after the word "licensees" therein the words "licensed druggists."

(12) Form A, Schedule 1, is amended by striking out the amount <sup>Form A, Schedule 1</sup> "$10" where the same appears therein, and by substituting <sup>thereof</sup> therefor the following: "dollars."

(13) Subsection (2) of section 61 of the said Ordinance is amended by adding thereto the following: <sup>Section 61</sup> "or on New Year's Day, Good Friday, Thanksgiving Day or <sup>amended</sup> Christmas Day."

11. The Legal Profession Act is amended by adding after <sup>7 (13th) VII</sup> the word "reputations" in the fourth line of section 31 the <sup>(Cap. 2)</sup> following words: "and upon presentation of the certificate of the clerk of the court referred to in section 35c hereof."

12. The said Act is further amended by adding after section 35 the following section:

"35c. Every person before being enrolled shall take and <sup>See Section</sup> subscribe before a judge or judges of the Supreme Court of Alberta, in open court, the following oath or affirmation:

"I do without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation sincerely promise and swear:

"(1) That I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George the Fifth for the reigning Sovereign for the time being as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the seas; and that I will defend him to the utmost of my power against all traitorous conspiracies or attempts whatsoever which may be made against his person, Crown and dignity, and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to His Majesty, his heirs or successors, all treasons, traitorous conspiracies or attempts which I may know to be made against him or any of them.

"(2) That I will, as a barrister and solicitor, conduct all causes and matters faithfully, and to the best of my ability; I will not seek to destroy any man's property; I will not be guilty of champerty or maintenance; I will not promote suits upon frivolous pretences; I will not pervert the law to favour or prejudice any man, but in all things conduct myself truly and with integrity in the King's interest and my fellow citizens' I will uphold and maintain according to the law in force in this province.

"2. Any person who has become entitled to be admitted to practise as a barrister and solicitor and has complied with the provisions of this Act and the regulations of the society, shall receive from the secretary a certificate under his hand and the seal of the society directed to a clerk of the Supreme Court.

"3. On presentation to the secretary of the society of a certificate signed and sealed by the clerk of the Supreme Court that the person named therein was on a certain day (naming it) duly sworn in before one or more of the judges of the Supreme Court in open court, the name of such person shall be entered on the roll of barristers and solicitors for the Province of Alberta."

"35. The books containing the roll of barristers and solicitors for the Province of Alberta shall be and remain in the custody of the society. Such roll shall during office hours be open to the inspection of any person without fee or reward."
