

BILL

No. 8 of 1911.

An Act to incorporate Les Filles de la Sagesse.

(Assented to 1911.)

WHEREAS an association of nuns has existed for some time in the Province of Alberta under the name of "Les Filles de la Sagesse," having for its object charitable works, comprising missions and congregations for ladies, orphanages, schools, boarding schools, working places, house keeping schools, agricultural orphanage, industrial schools, deaf and dumb institute, hospital, asylum, homes for incurable, dispensatories, boarding houses for lame and aged persons, and to impart education and moral training to pupils in convent and schools;

And whereas the petition presented in their name prays that the association may be vested with corporate powers and it is expedient to grant their prayers;

Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The Reverend Sister Marie Louise Galland, Sister Eugenie Dubary and Sister Jean Haissant, and such other persons as are now or may hereafter become under the provisions of this Act members of the said association, shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic corporate in deed and in name by the name of "Les Filles de la Sagesse" for the purposes and objects aforesaid.

2. The said corporation shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and may at all times hereafter contract and be contracted with, including the borrowing of money on mortgage or promissory note, sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in any matter whatsoever in all courts and places whatsoever in this province.

3. All lands, tenements and hereditaments, property (real and personal), and all buildings, schools and convents belonging to, possessed or enjoyed by the said association at the time of the passing of this Act and the lands thereto pertaining shall be and the same are hereby declared to be vested in the corporation for the purpose thereof.

4. The corporation shall have power from time to time and at all times hereafter to acquire by gift, devise, bequest, transfer, purchase or otherwise for the benefit of the corporation any land or real or personal estate and the same or any part thereof may from time to time dispose of by sale, transfer or mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise and with the proceeds therefrom may acquire other lands, tenements, hereditaments and other property (real or personal) or invest the same in any security whatsoever for the use of the corporation.

5. The revenues, issues and profits of all property (real or personal) held by the corporation shall be appropriated and applied to the maintenance of the members of the corporation and of the institutions carried on by the corporation and the construction and repair of buildings and the acquisition of property (real and personal) requisite for the purposes of the corporation and for the advancement of charity and benevolence.

6. The head office of the corporation shall be at Red Deer, <sup>Head office</sup> in the Province of Alberta, or at such other place in the province as may from time to time be determined by the by-laws of the corporation.

7. The corporation may from time to time have or establish <sup>Branches</sup> and maintain any number of branches thereof to promote the objects of the corporation and for such purposes to appoint such subordinate officers with such powers and tenure of office as the corporation may deem advisable.

8. It shall be lawful for the corporation to make by-laws, <sup>By-Laws</sup> rules, orders and regulations for the government and proper administration of the property, affairs and interest of the said corporation, and to repeal and amend the same from time to time including the enforcement of discipline and the admission and retirement of members, the appointment, deposition or removal of any person as member of the corporation or bearing office therein and generally for the internal government of affairs of the said corporation.

9. Until otherwise directed by by-law the present existing <sup>Management</sup> officers of the said association shall be officers with like powers and privileges of the said corporation and the present existing rules and regulations of the said association shall mutatis mutandis be the rules and regulations of the said corporation until changed by by-law.

10. The said corporation shall have power to appoint one <sup>Attorneys</sup> or more attorneys for such purposes as they may think fit.

11. Unless and until the by-laws of the corporation otherwise <sup>Execution of documents</sup> provide all transfers, deeds of sale, leases, mortgages, and any documents or paper writing whatsoever shall be executed with the seal of the corporation attested by the signature of its president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer or any two of them.

12. No member of the said corporation shall be individually <sup>Responsibility</sup> liable or accountable for the debts, contracts or securities of the said corporation.

13. The said corporation may exercise any industry that <sup>Exercise of industries</sup> may help them to maintain their institution and may bargain and sell the products of the same provided they conform to the laws of the province.

14. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of His <sup>Rights of His Majesty or other corporations not affected</sup> Majesty, his heirs or successors, or any other person or any body politic or corporate.

15. The corporation shall at all times when called upon so to do by the Lieutenant Governor in Council render an account in writing of their property and affairs.
