2. The constitution, rules and regulations touching the administration of the said corporation shall be formulated at a general meeting thereof, called for that purpose, and of which at least ten days' notice shall be given by public advertisement or otherwise to all the members thereof; and the constitution, rules and regulations then adopted shall, subject to the approval of the Attorney General, have full force and effect insofar as the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws in force in the Province of Alberta and the provisions of this Act:

Provided always that the said corporation may from time to time repeal, alter and change such constitution, rules and regulations in the manner herein provided, the amendments so made to be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General as aforesaid.

Borrowing
powers

3. The said corporation may, from time to time, borrow money, not to exceed in the whole the sum of two hundred thousand ($200,000.00) dollars at such rate of interest and upon such terms as they may deem proper; and may for such purpose make, execute or issue any mortgages, bonds or debentures, stock or other instruments under the seal of the said corporation, which bonds or debentures or stock or other instruments shall operate subject to any mortgage given in the part payment of the purchase money of real property acquired for a site for the club building; or of the erection of such buildings and appurtenances thereto, as mortgages and charges against the lands and effects of the said corporation without registration; and each holder of any of the said debentures or bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be a mortgage and encumbrance pro rata with the other holders thereof upon any interest in any real estate held by the said corporation, and also upon any such interest in any policy or policies of insurance against loss or damage by fire effected upon the buildings owned by the corporation.
