

BILL

No. 39 of 1913.

An Act to Authorize James Alexander McCaffry to Practise Law.

(Assented to 1913.)

Preamble

WHEREAS a petition has been presented by James Alexander McCaffry of the City of Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta, praying to be allowed to practise law in the Province of Alberta;

And whereas it appears by the said petition that the said James Alexander McCaffry in or about the month of October, 1905, was employed as clerk in the office of Douglas Smith & Co., solicitors of London, England, and continued in such employment up to immediately previous to his immigration to Canada in the month of January, A.D. 1910;

And whereas it appears by the said petition that the said James Alexander McCaffry during his employment in the said Douglas Smith Company, was managing clerk and transacted all business incident to the practice of a solicitor, and thereby acquired extensive experience in the practise of law;

And whereas it appears by the said petition of the said James Alexander McCaffry on his arrival in Canada in the month of January, 1910, he obtained employment as a clerk in the office of Griesbach & O'Connor, barristers in the City of Edmonton in the said province, and since then has been employed in different law firms, and he is still employed and attached to a law firm in the City of Edmonton;

And whereas it appears by the said petition of the said James Alexander McCaffry that he has passed the first examination prescribed by the rules of the Law Society for the Province of Alberta;

And whereas it appears by said petition with the said James Alexander McCaffry, he has shown ability and has not fallen beneath the standard required for a barrister and solicitor in the Province of Alberta, especially for a young practitioner, and has at all times upheld the ethics of the profession to the fullest extent;

And whereas it appears by the petition of the said James Alexander McCaffry that he is prevented from passing final examination to be admitted to practise law in the Province of Alberta, for two years longer by reason of the Rules and Regulations of the Law Society for the said Province;

And whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petitioner;

Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

James Alexander McCaffry to be permitted to practise law in the Province of Alberta, and to be duly registered upon passing certain oral examination

1. It shall and may be lawful for the Law Society of the Province of Alberta to include upon the register of said society, and to authorize the said James Alexander McCaffry to pursue the legal profession, and to grant the said James Alexander McCaffry such certificate as may enable him to be permitted to the practice of law in the said province upon the said James Alexander McCaffry passing an oral examination before one of the Benchers, and upon his paying the proper admission fee, without his complying with the other requirements and provisions of the Law Society for the Province of Alberta.
