BILL 226

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR EQUAL PAY FOR WORK OF EQUAL VALUE

(Assented to _____, 1983)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1 The Individual's Rights Protection Act is amended by this Act.

2 Section 6 is amended,

(a) by repealing subsections (1), (2) and (3) and substituting:

6(1) No employer shall establish or maintain a difference in the rate of pay between male and female employees employed in the same establishment who are performing work of equal or substantially equal value.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) in assessing the value of work performed by employees employed in the same establishment the criterion to be applied is the composite of the skill, effort and responsibility required in the performance of the work and the conditions under which the work is performed.

(3) Separate establishments established or maintained by an employer solely or principally for the purpose of establishing or maintaining a difference in the rate of pay between male and female employees shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be a single establishment.

(3.1) In subsections (1) to (3) "establishment" means a place of business where an undertaking or part of an undertaking is carried on, and

(b) by adding at the end of it:

(7) For the purposes of this section, "rate of pay" means all remuneration and benefits payable for work performed by

Explanatory Notes

1 This Bill will amend chapter I-2 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta 1980.

2 Section 6(1), (2) and (3) presently reads:

6(1) No employer shall

(a) employ a female employee for any work at a rate of pay that is less than the rate of pay at which a male employee is employed by that employer for similar or substantially similar work in the same establishment, or

(b) employ a male employee for any work at a rate of pay that is less than the rate of pay at which a female employee is employed by that employer for similar or substantially similar work in the same establishment.

(2) In subsection (1) "establishment" means a place of business where an undertaking or part of an undertaking is carried on.

(3) Work for which a female employee is employed and work for which a male employee is employed shall be deemed to be similar or substantially similar if the job, duties or services the employees are called on to perform are similar or substantially similar.

the individual and includes salary, commission, vacation pay, termination pay, bonuses, reasonable value of board or accommodation supplied or any subsidy provided thereon, payments in kind, and the value of employer contributions to a pension plan, a long-term disability plan or a health insurance plan and any other advantage received directly or indirectly from the individual's employer.

In accordance with section 4(1) of the Interpretation Act, this Bill comes into force on the date it receives Royal Assent.
