Part 1

Unclaimed Personal Property

When personal property is presumed to be abandoned

4(1) Personal property is presumed to be abandoned if it is unclaimed by the apparent owner within the applicable periods prescribed in the regulations.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the regulations, at the time that an interest in personal property is presumed abandoned under subsection (1), any other personal property right accrued or accruing to the apparent owner as a result of the interest, and not previously presumed abandoned, is also presumed abandoned.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), personal property is unclaimed if, within the applicable period prescribed by the regulations, the apparent owner has not

- (a) communicated with the holder concerning the personal property or the account in which the personal property is held
 - (i) in writing, or
 - (ii) by other means reflected in a record prepared by or on behalf of the holder at the time of the communication, or

- (b) otherwise indicated an interest in the personal property by an action in accordance with the regulations.

(4) Subject to the regulations, for the purposes of subsection (3)(b), an indication of an apparent owner's interest in personal property includes,

- (a) in the case of a dividend or other distribution made with respect to an account or underlying security, security certificate or security entitlement or other interest in a business organization, the presentation of a cheque or other instrument of payment of a dividend or other distribution or, in the case of a distribution made by electronic or similar means, evidence that the distribution has been received,

- (e) an action taken in accordance with the regulations, but does not include a communication with the apparent owner by a person other than the holder or its representative who has not in writing identified the personal property to the apparent owner.

(5) Where the personal property is apparently owned jointly by 2 or more persons, communication concerning or an indication of interest in the personal property for the purposes of subsection (3) may be provided by any one of the apparent owners.

(6) Personal property is payable or distributable for the purposes of this Act on the day on which the apparent owner could have made a demand or presented an instrument or document required to obtain payment, despite the apparent owner's failure to make a demand or present an instrument or document otherwise required to obtain payment.

Notice to apparent owner

5(1) A holder of unclaimed personal property must provide a written notice that complies with subsection (2) to the apparent owner of that personal property at least 3 months, but not more than 8 months, before the date by which the holder is required to comply with section 7(2) to (4) in relation to that unclaimed personal property.

(2) A notice required under subsection (1) must be delivered to the apparent owner's last known address shown in the records of the holder and must

- (c) identify the holder and state that the holder is holding the unclaimed personal property, and
- (d) contain any other prescribed information.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a holder of unclaimed personal property is not required to provide notice to the apparent owner of the unclaimed personal property before complying with section 7(2) to (4) if the holder has reasonable grounds to believe that the last known address for the apparent owner shown in the records of the holder is not correct and the correct address cannot reasonably be ascertained.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a holder may collect, use and disclose personal information about or identifiers of an apparent owner in order to determine the current address of the apparent owner.

Fees

6(1) A holder shall not impose a fee for providing a notice to an apparent owner under section 5(1) unless the holder regularly imposes the fee and does not regularly reverse or cancel the fee and

- (a) the imposition of a fee is authorized by a written contract between the holder and the apparent owner, or
- (b) the fee is reasonable and does not exceed any amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

(2) A holder shall not impose a charge against an apparent owner because the apparent owner has failed to communicate with the holder or because there have been no transactions with respect to the property unless the holder regularly imposes the charge and does not regularly reverse or cancel the charge and

- (a) the imposition of a charge is authorized by a written contract between the holder and the apparent owner, or
- (b) the charge is reasonable and does not exceed any amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

(3) For the purposes of this section, ceasing to make payment of interest is deemed to be the imposition of a charge or fee and the amount of the unpaid interest is deemed to be the amount of the charge or fee.

(4) A written contract referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a) includes a group insurance contract.

(5) For the purposes of sections 7, 8 and 39, a reference to a fee includes a charge that may be imposed pursuant to this section.

7(1) A person who, on December 31 in any year, is the holder of unclaimed personal property that is presumed to be abandoned in accordance with section 4 must, within 120 days of the end of that year or within any extension of that period that the Minister grants under subsection (5), comply with subsections (2) to (4) if

- (a) the holder is an individual who is ordinarily resident in Alberta, or
- (b) in the case of a holder that is not an individual,
 - (i) the last known address for the apparent owner shown in the records of the holder is in Alberta and the holder carries on business in Alberta,
 - (ii) the last known address of the apparent owner shown in the records of the holder is in a reciprocating jurisdiction in which the holder does not carry on business and the holder is based in Alberta, or
 - (iii) the records of the holder do not show the identity of the apparent owner or, if an identity is shown, do not show any address for the apparent owner, and the holder is based in Alberta.

(2) A reporting holder must, within the time limited by subsection (1),

- (a) subject to the regulations, prepare a report in the form required by the Minister respecting the unclaimed personal property that is presumed to be abandoned in accordance with section 4 of which the reporting holder was a holder at the end of the preceding calendar year,

- (b) identify separately in the report
 - (i) the unclaimed personal property to which the report refers,
 - (ii) any fees imposed in accordance with section 6 with respect to the unclaimed personal property referred to in subclause (i), and
 - (iii) any other information prescribed in the regulations,
- (c) include in the report with respect to each item of unclaimed personal property referred to in clause (b)(i) the last known address and the social insurance number, if known, of the apparent owner and any other information respecting the apparent owner prescribed in the regulations,
- (d) deliver the report to the Minister, and
- (e) subject to section 14(2) and the regulations,
 - (i) pay, transfer or deliver to the Minister the unclaimed personal property referred to in clause (b)(i) net of any fees imposed in accordance with section 6, or
 - (ii) serve on the Minister a written objection in the form required by the Minister setting out the basis on which the reporting holder objects to paying, transferring or delivering the unclaimed personal property to the Minister.

(3) If for any reason the records available to the reporting holder are not sufficiently complete to allow the reporting holder to provide all the information required under subsection (2), the reporting holder must, within the time limited by subsection (1), comply with subsection (2) to the extent possible.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(e)(i), if the reporting holder is not able to effect payment, transfer or delivery of the unclaimed personal property within the time limited by subsection (1), the reporting holder must pay to the Minister in place of the unclaimed personal property the amount that the Minister estimates, on the basis of the reporting holder's records or another reasonable method of estimation, to be equivalent to the value of the unclaimed personal property that ought to have been paid, transferred or delivered by the reporting holder under subsection (2)(e)(i), unless

- (i) the reporting holder serves on the Minister a written objection pursuant to subsection (2)(e)(ii), or
- (ii) the reporting holder, in accordance with the regulations, is not obligated to make the payment.

(5) Before the date for delivering the report, a reporting holder may request the Minister to extend the time for delivering the report and for paying, transferring or delivering the unclaimed personal property, and the Minister may grant the extension.

(6) An objection served by a holder under this section or section 9 must be resolved in accordance with section 59.

(7) Where a holder has paid, transferred or delivered property to the Minister in error under this section or section 9, 10, 17 or 18, the holder may apply to the Minister in the form required by the Minister for return of the property.

Recovery of fees

8(1) Where a holder is entitled under section 6 to impose a fee in respect of unclaimed personal property and the holder has a right pursuant to a contract or an enactment of Alberta or of Canada to recover the fee by taking an action in relation to the personal property, the holder may take the action authorized by the contract or the applicable enactment to recover the fee.

(2) If the action referred to in subsection (1) is a sale of the property, the holder must pay any proceeds of the sale in excess of the fee to the Minister in accordance with section 7.

(3) Where the holder is not entitled to sell the personal property to recover the fee and the personal property is required to be paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister, the holder may advise the Minister of the amount of the outstanding fee, and the Minister must record that amount as an amount to be reimbursed to the holder if

- (a) the owner, in accordance with section 48, reimburses the Minister for the amount of the fee, or

- (b) the Minister sells the personal property, unless the proceeds are less than the total of the amount of the outstanding fee and the Minister's costs of administering the property to that date, in which case the proceeds must be distributed in accordance with the regulations.

Claim of unclaimed personal property by Minister

9(1) The Minister may at any time, in writing, claim unclaimed personal property from a holder.

(2) Whether or not a holder is a reporting holder when a claim is made under subsection (1), the holder must, subject to section 14(2), pay, transfer or deliver to the Minister, within 120 days after receiving the Minister's claim, the unclaimed personal property referred to in the claim along with a report that complies with the requirements of section 7(2), unless

- (a) the unclaimed personal property is not within the holder's power or control, in which case the holder must pay to the Minister an amount that the Minister estimates, on the basis of the holder's records or another reasonable method of estimation, to be equivalent to the value of the unclaimed personal property that ought to have been paid, transferred or delivered by the holder under this subsection, or
- (b) the holder, within the 120-day period, serves on the Minister a written objection in the form required by the Minister setting out the basis on which the holder objects to paying, transferring or delivering the unclaimed personal property to the Minister.

(3) In accordance with the regulations, if the Minister claims unclaimed personal property from a holder under this section, the Minister must, within 120 days from the date on which the Minister receives the unclaimed personal property, provide notice to the apparent owner that

- (a) identifies the unclaimed personal property,
- (b) states that the unclaimed personal property is subject to this Act,
- (c) states that the Minister is holding the unclaimed personal property, and

- (d) contains any other prescribed information.

Voluntary payment, transfer or delivery

10(1) Subject to section 14(2), a holder may at any time, under the conditions prescribed in the regulations, pay, transfer or deliver personal property to the Minister

- (a) before the personal property becomes unclaimed personal property, or
- (b) before a report under section 7(2) is required in respect of the personal property.

(2) A holder who pays, transfers or delivers personal property to the Minister under this section must provide with the personal property a report that complies with the requirements of section 7(2).

(3) Where the Minister receives personal property under this section before it would otherwise become unclaimed personal property under this Act,

- (a) the Minister must determine the day on which the personal property becomes unclaimed personal property in accordance with section 4 and the regulations, and holder to deliver to the Minister the records relating to that personal property, whether or not the personal property is unclaimed personal property.

(2) A holder

- (a) must comply with any demand made under subsection (1) within the time required by the Minister, and
- (b) may, whether or not a demand is made under subsection (1), deliver to the Minister any record relating to the personal property that the Minister decides to accept.

(2) A holder must, in accordance with the regulations, in relation to any payment, transfer or delivery the holder may or must make to the Minister under this Part, make the same withholdings and remittances that the holder would be required to make under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or another enactment as if the holder were making the payment, transfer or delivery to the apparent owner, and the Minister is entitled to receive from the holder only that portion of the payment, transfer or delivery that the apparent owner would be entitled to receive from the holder after all of those withholdings and remittances have been made.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) relieves a holder of the holder's obligations under subsection (2) or sections 11 to 13.

(4) No holder is exempt from the obligation to provide the information or records required pursuant to section 11, 12, 19 or 20 by reason that the information or records are privileged.

- (a) the vested personal property is not within the holder's power or control, in which case the holder must pay to the Minister in place of the vested personal property an amount that the Minister estimates, on the basis of the holder's records or another reasonable method of estimation, to be equivalent to the value of the vested personal property that ought to have been paid, transferred or delivered by the holder under this subsection, or
- (b) the holder, within the 120-day period, serves on the Minister a written objection in the form required by the Minister setting out the basis on which the holder objects to paying, transferring or delivering the vested personal property to the Minister.

(3) An objection served by a holder under this section must be resolved in accordance with section 59.

Voluntary payment, transfer or delivery

18(1) Subject to section 22(2), a holder may, under the conditions prescribed in the regulations, pay, transfer or deliver vested personal property to the Minister.

(2) A holder who pays, transfers or delivers vested personal property to the Minister under this section must provide with the vested personal property a report that complies with the requirements of section 7(2).

Delivery of records

19(1) If a holder pays, transfers or delivers vested personal property, or pays an amount as equivalent value for vested personal property, to the Minister under section 17 or 18, the Minister may require the holder to deliver to the Minister the records relating to that vested personal property.

(2) A holder

- (a) must comply with any demand made under subsection (1) within the time required by the Minister, and
- (b) may, whether or not a demand is made under subsection (1), deliver to the Minister any record in relation to the vested personal property that the Minister decides to accept.

Demand for additional information

20(1) Whether or not the vested personal property of which a person is a holder is paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister under this Act, the Minister may, for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this Act and the regulations, make one or both of the following demands to the holder of the vested personal property:

- (a) a demand that the holder deliver to the Minister a report or a supplementary report, in the required form, in relation to the vested personal property;
- (b) a demand that the holder deliver to the Minister any information or records specified by the Minister in the possession or control of the holder respecting or relating in any way to the vested personal property.

(2) A demand under subsection (1) must be served on the holder by

- (a) personal delivery,
- (b) registered mail, or
- (c) any other means, or in any other manner, that may be prescribed.

(3) A holder who receives a demand under this section must comply with the demand within 30 days after receipt unless a longer period is authorized by the Minister.

Retention of records

21 A holder who pays, transfers or delivers vested personal property, or pays an amount as equivalent value for vested personal property, to the Minister under section 17 or 18 must retain possession or control, for 10 years after complying with the applicable section, of all of the records relating to the vested personal property that are not delivered to the Minister under section 19 or 20 and that

- (a) could be used in identifying or locating the owner or apparent owner of the personal property, or
- (b) describe or could be used in determining the value of the personal property at the time it was paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister.

Liability and obligations of holder

22(1) A holder who, in accordance with section 17 or 18, pays, transfers or delivers vested personal property, or pays an amount as equivalent value for vested personal property, to the Minister is relieved from all liability in respect of the vested personal property to the extent of the payment or the value of the vested personal property at the time it was transferred or delivered.

(2) A holder must, in accordance with the regulations, in relation to any payment, transfer or delivery the holder may or must make to the Minister under this Part, make the same withholdings and remittances that the holder would be required to make under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or another enactment as if the holder were making the payment, transfer or delivery to the former owner, and the Minister is entitled to receive from the holder only that portion of the payment, transfer or delivery that the former owner would be entitled to receive from the holder after all of those withholdings and remittances have been made.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) relieves a holder of the holder's obligations under subsection (2) or sections 19 to 21.

Division 2 Vested Land

Interpretation

23 For the purposes of this Division,

- (a) “approved form” means a form approved pursuant to section 24;
- (b) “Registrar” means the Registrar of Titles appointed under the Land Titles Act.

Forms

24 The forms to be used for the purposes of sections 26, 27, 28 and 31 must be approved by both the Minister and the Minister responsible for the Land Titles Act.

Searches

25 For the purpose of administering this Act, the Minister may direct the Registrar to furnish a search of the information contained in the register of titles to land kept in accordance with the Land Titles Act.

Caveats

26(1) The Minister may file a caveat with the Registrar protecting the Crown’s interest in vested land.

(2) Notwithstanding section 138 of the Land Titles Act, a caveat filed pursuant to this section does not lapse.

(3) The Minister may withdraw a caveat filed under subsection (1) by filing with the Registrar a notice of withdrawal in the approved form if the owner or former owner has reimbursed the Crown for expenses and administration fees, if any, incurred by the Crown in respect of the land and the Minister is satisfied that

- (a) the corporation, society or cooperative has revived and the land is no longer vested in the Crown,
- (b) the Crown is no longer the heir of the estate or of the portion of the estate that consists of the land,

- (c) it is not proper for any reason for the caveat to be or to remain filed against the land, or
- (d) any other circumstances prescribed in the regulations are present.

Crown as owner of vested land

27(1) Subject to section 28, the Minister may, in the approved form, direct the Registrar to cancel an existing certificate of title with respect to vested land and to issue a new certificate of title in favour of the Crown.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister may make a direction to the Registrar under subsection (1) at any time after the land has vested in the Crown.

(3) Where the registered title holder of vested land was a corporation, cooperative or society and the time period set out in section 34(1) during which the corporation, cooperative or society may be revived has not expired, the Minister may not instruct the Registrar to take any action with respect to the existing certificate of title to the vested land until 120 days after the date on which a notice of the Minister's intention is sent to the registered title holder.

Registered interests

28(1) The following registered interests continue to apply to any vested land and may not be removed under this Act from the certificate of title:

- (k) a registered encumbrance or interest where the encumbrancee or owner of the interest has taken active steps to enforce its security against the land in accordance with subsection (4);
- (l) an interest in land prescribed by regulation.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), if land has vested in the Crown, the Minister may give notice to any encumbrancee or other person with a registered interest against the vested land of the Minister's intention to direct the Registrar to remove the registered encumbrance or interest from the title to the vested land.

(3) The giving of a notice by the Minister under subsection (2) of intention to remove an encumbrance or other registered interest in respect of mines and minerals must be approved by the Minister responsible for the Mines and Minerals Act.

(4) When the Minister gives notice under subsection (2), an encumbrancee or other person with a registered interest against the vested land

- (a) may commence an action or take steps to enforce the encumbrance or interest if any applicable limitation period with respect to the encumbrance or interest has not expired, and
- (b) must notify the Minister, in the approved form, of any action or steps taken under clause (a) within 120 days of the date on the notice.

(5) If a certificate of title has been issued under section 27 in favour of the Crown, the Minister may at any time after the end of the 120-day period referred to in subsection (4)(b) direct the Registrar, in the approved form, to remove from the certificate of title to vested land any encumbrance or other registered interest where the encumbrancee or the person with the registered interest has not complied with subsection (4), and the encumbrance or other registered interest, on being removed from the certificate of title, is extinguished.

(6) The Minister is not liable for any costs, losses or damages arising from any encumbrance or registered interest if the costs arose or became payable before the date on which the land vests in the Crown.

(7) The Minister is not liable for any costs arising from an encumbrance or registered interest if the costs arise or become payable after the date on which the land vests in the Crown unless

- (a) the Minister has actual knowledge of the encumbrance or registered interest, and
- (b) the Minister has accepted the encumbrance or registered interest and has notified the encumbrancee or person with the registered interest of the decision to accept it.

(8) Except as specifically provided in this section, nothing in this section prevents a creditor from enforcing a registered interest in vested land that the creditor has under another enactment.

Transfer and sale of vested land

29(1) Until a certificate of title has been issued to the Crown in respect of vested land or vested property that relates to land, the Minister is responsible for the administration of the interests in that land.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister may transfer, and any Minister may subsequently transfer, the administration of any interest in land

- (a) that has vested in the Crown and to which this Act applies,

(6) A sale or other disposition of vested land under this Act must be in accordance with the regulations.

Inspection

30(1) The Minister may inspect vested land at the Minister's discretion at any time.

(2) An inspection by the Minister under subsection (1) does not constitute possession or control of the land for the purposes of section 5(5) of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act.

(3) The Minister is not a person responsible, within the meaning of the Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act, with respect to any substance present in, on or under land to which this Act applies merely because the land has vested in the Crown.

Crown as encumbrancee of land

31(1) In this section, "interest" means an encumbrance, registered interest or similar interest in land, but does not include a fee simple.

(2) When an interest in land vests in the Crown pursuant to this Act, the Minister may accept or disclaim the interest in accordance with the regulations.

(3) The Minister is not liable for any costs arising from an interest in land if the costs arose or became payable before the date on which the interest vests in the Crown.

(2) This Part applies to the estate of an intestate

- (a) who dies after this Act comes into force, or
- (b) who died before this Act came into force, to the extent that the administration of the intestate’s estate has not been completed before this Act comes into force.

Transfer and vesting of estate

33(1) A personal representative of an intestate in respect of all or any portion of the intestate’s estate who has not within 2 years after the grant of administration learned of any person entitled by law to the estate, or a portion of it, must, subject to section 22(2), pay, transfer or deliver the estate or the portion, as the case may be, and any information or records relating to it to the Minister, and on doing so the personal representative is discharged from liability in respect of the property paid, transferred or delivered.

(2) Property paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister by a personal representative in accordance with subsection (1) vests in the Crown as of the date on which it is paid, transferred or delivered.

(3) A person who claims to be entitled to an estate or a portion of an estate that has been paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister under this section may assert a claim in accordance with section 48.

Part 4 Corporations, Societies and Cooperatives

Revival of corporation, society or cooperative

34(1) If a corporation, society or cooperative that has been dissolved under the enactment applicable to the corporation, society or cooperative is revived within 5 years after the date of dissolution, the corporation, society or cooperative may assert a claim in accordance with section 48 regarding property of the corporation, society or cooperative that was paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister under this Act.

(2) The Minister is not liable for any action taken under this Act between the date of dissolution of a corporation, society or cooperative and the date of its revival, notwithstanding that

- (a) a revived corporation or society is deemed always to have existed pursuant to sections 208 and 210 of the Business Corporations Act, and
- (b) a revived cooperative is restored to its previous position in law pursuant to section 329(6) of the Cooperatives Act.

Sale of vested property of corporation, society or cooperative

35(1) No person other than a Minister may sell or otherwise dispose of the vested property of a dissolved corporation, society or cooperative after the date of its dissolution.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister may bring an action for an amount as equivalent value for the vested property of a dissolved corporation, society or cooperative that was sold in contravention of subsection (1) against the purchaser or the former directors or officers of the dissolved corporation, society or cooperative, as the case may be, or all of them.

(3) The Minister may not bring an action under subsection (2) where a dissolved corporation, society or cooperative is revived within 5 years of the date of its dissolution.

(4) A bona fide purchaser for value or a former director or officer of a dissolved corporation, society or cooperative is not liable under subsection (2) if the purchaser or the former director or officer exercised the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in determining whether the sale of the property was lawful before it was sold.

(5) Nothing in this section prevents a bona fide purchaser for value from obtaining title to vested land in accordance with the Land Titles Act.

Part 5 Administration

(2) Subject to this Act, the Minister may, in relation to unclaimed personal property, exercise all the rights and powers of a legal and equitable owner of that unclaimed personal property and

- (a) may dispose of the unclaimed personal property in any manner the Minister considers reasonable,
- (b) if investing unclaimed personal property or proceeds from the sale of unclaimed personal property, must do so in accordance with investment policies, standards and procedures that a reasonable and prudent person would apply in respect of a portfolio of investments to avoid undue risk of loss and obtain a reasonable return,
- (c) if the unclaimed personal property is a certificated security registered in the name of the apparent owner, the Minister is the appropriate person in place of the apparent owner and may make an endorsement in place of the apparent owner for the purpose of dealing with or disposing of the certificated security in accordance with the applicable law, and

(d) if the unclaimed personal property is a negotiable instrument, may deal with it in accordance with the regulations.

(3) The Minister may, if the Minister considers it prudent to do so, retain the unclaimed personal property in the form in which it was paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister.

(4) The Minister may attempt to locate owners of unclaimed personal property or vested property received by the Minister under this Act and may collect information from any person for this purpose.

(6) If the Minister contracts with a person to locate owners of unclaimed personal property or vested property, the Minister must enter into an agreement with the contractor providing for the protection of personal information and control of records created or collected by the contractor for the purpose of providing the contracted services.

(7) Any endorsement made by the Minister as the appropriate person under subsection (2)(c) must be accompanied with a certificate of the Minister stating that the endorsement has been made by the Minister under the authority of this Act.

Revenue and expenses

39(1) In subsections (2), (3), (4), (8), (9), (10) and (11), “Minister” includes the Minister responsible for the administration of this Act and any other Minister to whom responsibility for the administration of vested property has been transferred under section 29, as the context requires.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), revenue earned by property

(a) where the property is unclaimed personal property or an amount paid as equivalent value for unclaimed personal property, during the period commencing on the date the property or amount is paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister and ending on the earliest of the date on which the property or amount is returned to the claimant under section 48, the date on which the property or that portion of the property is paid, transferred or delivered to a claimant under section 49 and the date on which rights to the property are extinguished pursuant to section 48(9) or 49(10),

- (b) where the property is vested property formerly owned by an intestate, during the period commencing on the date on which the property is paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister and ending on the earliest of the date on which the property or amount is returned to the claimant under section 48, the date on which the property or that portion of the property is paid, transferred or delivered to a claimant under section 49 and the date on which rights to the property are extinguished pursuant to section 48(9) or 49(10),
- (c) where the property is vested property formerly owned by a corporation, cooperative or society that was not disposed of at the date of dissolution and that has been paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister, during the period commencing on the date of dissolution and ending on the earliest of the date on which the property is returned to the claimant under section 48, the date on which the property or that portion of the property is paid, transferred or delivered to a claimant under section 49 and the date on which rights to the property are extinguished pursuant to section 48(9) or 49(10), or
- (d) where the property is vested property formerly owned by a corporation, cooperative or society that was not disposed of at the date of dissolution and the corporation, cooperative or society has not revived within 5 years from the date of dissolution, during the period commencing on the date of dissolution and ending 5 years after that date, is the property of the Crown.

(3) Where

- (a) vested property formerly owned by a corporation, cooperative or society was not disposed of at the date of dissolution,

- (b) the property has not been transferred to the Minister, and
- (c) the corporation, cooperative or society is revived within 5 years from the date of dissolution, revenue earned by the property during the period commencing on the date of dissolution and ending on the date on which the corporation, cooperative or society is revived is not subject to this Act.

(4) The Minister may charge reasonable expenses, including administration fees, as prescribed in the regulations, in respect of unclaimed personal property, vested property or amounts paid as equivalent value for unclaimed personal property or vested property,

- (a) against the revenue earned by the property, or
- (b) where the revenue earned by the property is insufficient to pay the expenses and administration fees,
 - (i) in the case of unclaimed personal property or vested personal property, against the personal property, or in the case of an amount paid as equivalent value for unclaimed personal property or vested personal property, against the principal, up to the value of the personal property or the total of the amount or the amount of the expenses and administration fees, whichever is less,
 - (ii) in the case of vested land except vested land that is part of an estate, against the vested land and the former owner of it, and
 - (iii) in the case of vested land that is part of an estate, against the vested land and the estate.

(5) The Minister must account separately for the revenue earned by, and the expenses and administration fees incurred in respect of or charged against, each item of unclaimed personal property or each item of vested property or each amount while the item or amount is in the Minister's possession, and where items of unclaimed personal property or vested personal property or amounts are invested on an aggregate basis, the investment revenue must be allocated proportionally to each item or amount.

(6) Where the Minister has retained unclaimed personal property in the form in which it was paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister, the Minister must in respect of a claim allowed under section 48 or 49 require the claimant to pay any amount by which the expenses and administration fees incurred in respect of or charged against the unclaimed personal property exceed the revenue from the property before returning, paying, transferring or delivery the property to the claimant.

(7) If the expenses and administration fees exceed the value of the unclaimed personal property or the total of the amount paid as equivalent value for the unclaimed personal property, the Minister may retain the property or amount.

(8) If a claim is allowed under section 48 or 49 in respect of vested property, the Minister must require the claimant to pay the outstanding expenses and administration fees before returning, paying, transferring or delivering the property to the claimant.

(9) Notwithstanding that a person who was a former owner of vested land has not made a claim under section 48 in respect of the vested land, the former owner is liable for all of the Crown's expenses and administration fees in relation to the vested land, and the total amount of the expenses and administration fees may be recovered by the Minister as a debt owing to the Crown.

(10) The Minister may at any time transfer net revenue earned by unclaimed personal property, or by an amount paid to the Minister as equivalent value for unclaimed personal property, to the General Revenue Fund.

(11) Where

- (a) the Minister has received more than one item of unclaimed personal property or vested property, or amounts paid as equivalent value for the unclaimed personal property or vested property, of an apparent owner or former owner, and
- (b) the total amount of expenses and administration fees incurred in respect of or charged against the revenue from or value of a single item of the unclaimed personal property or vested property of the apparent owner or former owner exceeds the value of that item, the Minister may offset the excess against the revenue from, or value of, the apparent owner's or former owner's other unclaimed personal property or vested property or amounts paid as equivalent value for the unclaimed personal property or vested property in the possession of the Minister.

(12) Where a holder is entitled under section 8 to recover the amount of an outstanding fee, the Minister may pay that amount to the holder in accordance with the regulations and that amount is an expense that may be charged under subsections (4) and (6).

Registered interests

40(1) Where an enactment requires notice to be given by a creditor who proposes to enforce a registered interest to the owner of the property that is subject to the registered interest and

- (a) the property is unclaimed personal property or vested personal property that has been paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister, or
- (b) the property is vested land and the Minister has filed a caveat against the certificate of title or directed the Registrar of Titles appointed under the Land Titles Act to cancel the former certificate of title and issue a new certificate of title in the name of the Crown, the creditor must, in addition to the notice required to be given to the owner, apparent owner or former owner, as the case may be, provide notice to the Minister in accordance with the requirements of the other enactment.

(2) Where vested property subject to this Act has not been paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister, a creditor may provide notice referred to in subsection (1) to the Minister.

(3) The Minister may receive notice from creditors for the enforcement of a security interest in unclaimed personal property or vested property that has been paid, transferred or delivered to the Minister and may take any action the Minister considers necessary or advisable in the circumstances, including, without limitation, attending at any hearing and making representations regarding the property.

(4) A creditor who proceeds to enforce the creditor's registered interest in property that is subject to this Act must pay to the Minister any proceeds from the sale or other disposition of the property in excess of the amount to which the creditor is entitled.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, the registration of an encumbrance or registered interest on a certificate of title or in a registry does not constitute actual knowledge by the Minister of the encumbrance or registered interest.

No liability

41 No liability attaches to the Crown, and no action or proceeding may be brought against the Crown, the Minister, a Minister to whom responsibility for vested property has been transferred or any agent or employee of the Crown for any costs, losses or damages arising, directly or indirectly, in respect of any act or thing done or omitted to be done purportedly pursuant to this Act, the regulations or an order or direction of the Minister under this Act.

Other Jurisdictions

Minister's rights and obligations relative to foreign administrators

42(1) In this section, “foreign administrator” means the person who, in another jurisdiction specified in the regulations, exercises a role or function similar to that of the Minister in relation to unclaimed personal property.

(2) If the Minister receives unclaimed personal property under section 7, 9 or 10 or under subsection (3), or receives an amount as equivalent value for unclaimed personal property under section 7(4) or 9(2)(a) or under subsection (3), and a foreign administrator claims that unclaimed personal property or amount from the Minister, the Minister, after considering the foreign administrator’s claim, may pay, transfer or deliver to the foreign administrator the unclaimed personal property or amount and deliver any related records in the possession of the Minister if

- (a) the last known address of the owner is in the foreign administrator’s jurisdiction or, if no address is known for the owner, the last known address of the apparent owner is in the foreign administrator’s jurisdiction, or
- (b) no address is known for the owner or the apparent owner and the holder is based in the foreign administrator’s jurisdiction.

(3) If a foreign administrator receives unclaimed personal property, the Minister may claim and receive from the foreign administrator the unclaimed personal property, or an amount as equivalent value for the unclaimed personal property, and any related records in the possession of the foreign administrator if

- (b) no address is known for the owner or the apparent owner and the holder is based in Alberta.

Agreements with other jurisdictions

43(1) The Minister may enter into one or more agreements with the government of Canada, the government of any province or territory or the government of any other jurisdiction or with the person who, in another jurisdiction, exercises a role or function similar to that exercised by the Minister under this Act, to enable one or both of the contracting parties

- (a) to determine the unclaimed personal property or amounts to which a contracting party is entitled, or
- (b) to collect, use and disclose information and deliver property or amounts to facilitate the return of unclaimed personal property or its value to its rightful owner.

(2) If the Lieutenant Governor in Council is satisfied that a jurisdiction has enacted unclaimed personal property legislation that is substantially similar to the provisions of this Act dealing with unclaimed personal property, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may declare that jurisdiction to be a reciprocating jurisdiction for the purposes of this Act.

Agreements

Agreements to locate property

44(1) An agreement by which a party to the agreement agrees to locate or recover unclaimed personal property or vested property for an owner or apparent owner

- (a) must clearly set out the terms of the agreement, including the estimated value of the unclaimed personal property or vested property and the total cost of the contract to the owner or apparent owner, and

(b) must be in writing and signed by the owner or apparent owner.

(2) A provision in an agreement referred to in subsection (1) is of no force or effect if, in the opinion of the Minister, it provides for unreasonable compensation or expenses or both or is otherwise unconscionable.

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, for the purposes of subsection (2), prescribe a maximum amount of compensation or expenses or both and may prescribe different maximum amounts based on different values of the unclaimed personal property or vested personal property involved, and in that event, any compensation or expenses or both provided for in an agreement that exceed that prescribed maximum are, for the purposes of subsection (2), unreasonable.

(4) Despite any provision of an agreement referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may pay, transfer or deliver any unclaimed personal property or vested property or pay any amount directly to a claimant who satisfies the Minister under section 48(2)(a).

(5) This section does not apply to an agreement between an owner and a lawyer under which the lawyer agrees to act in his or her professional capacity as lawyer for the owner or apparent owner to assist the owner or apparent owner to locate or recover unclaimed personal property or vested personal property.
