BILL 10

2020

PUBLIC HEALTH (EMERGENCY POWERS) AMENDMENT ACT, 2020

(Assented to , 2020)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, enacts as follows:

Amends RSA 2000 cP-37

1 The Public Health Act is amended by this Act.

2 Section 1 is amended by adding the following after clause (ff):

(ff.1) “police officer” means a police officer as defined in the Police Act;

3 Section 52.1(2) is repealed and the following is substituted:

(2) On the making of an order under subsection (1) and for up to 60 days following the lapsing of that order, a person referred to in subsection (3) may by order, without consultation,

(a) suspend or modify the application or operation of all or part of an enactment, subject to the terms and conditions that person may prescribe, or

(b) specify or set out provisions that apply in addition to, or instead of, any provision of an enactment, if the person is satisfied that doing so is in the public interest.

Explanatory Notes

1 Amends chapter P-37 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta 2000.

2 Section 1 presently reads in part:

1 In this Act,

(ff) “owner” means the registered owner, and any person in the actual or apparent possession or control of land or a premises;

3 Section 52.1(2) presently reads:

(2) On the making of an order under subsection (1) and for up to 60 days following the lapsing of that order, a person referred to in subsection (3) may by order, without consultation, suspend or modify the application or operation of all or part of an enactment subject to the terms and conditions that person may prescribe if the person is satisfied that its application or operation is not in the public interest.
(2.1) An order made under subsection (2) may be made retroactive to a date not earlier than the date on which a state of public health emergency was declared under subsection (1).

(2.2) An order made under subsection (2) may not

(a) impose or increase any tax or impost,

(b) appropriate any part of the public revenue or any tax or impost, or

(c) create a new offence with retroactive effect.

(2.3) Every order made under subsection (2) on or after March 17, 2020 and before the coming into force of this subsection that is purported to apply retroactively to a date not earlier than March 17, 2020 is deemed to have been validly made.

(2.4) Where there is a conflict or inconsistency between an order made under subsection (2) and a provision of the enactment to which the order relates, the order prevails to the extent of the conflict or inconsistency.

4 Section 52.21 is amended

(a) in subsection (1) by striking out “may authorize” and substituting “may make an order authorizing”;

(b) by repealing subsection (2) and substituting the following:

(2) On the making of an order under subsection (1) and continuing until the lapsing of that order, a Minister authorized under subsection (1) may by order, without consultation,

(a) suspend or modify the application or operation of all or part of an enactment for which the Minister is responsible, subject to the terms and conditions the Minister may prescribe, or

(b) specify or set out provisions that apply in addition to, or instead of, any provision of an enactment for which the Minister is responsible,
Section 52.21 presently reads:

52.21(1) Where, on the advice of the Chief Medical Officer, the Lieutenant Governor in Council is satisfied that

(a) there is a significant likelihood of pandemic influenza, and

(b) prompt co-ordination of action is required in order to avert or minimize the pandemic, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may authorize a Minister to make orders under subsection (2).

(2) A Minister authorized under subsection (1) may by order, without consultation, suspend or modify the application or operation of all or part of an enactment for which that Minister is responsible subject to the terms and conditions that Minister may prescribe if the Minister is satisfied that its application or operation may directly or indirectly unreasonably hinder or delay action required in order to protect the public health.
if the person is satisfied that failing to do so may directly or indirectly unreasonably hinder or delay action required in order to protect the public health.

(3) An order made by a Minister under subsection (2) may be made retroactive to a date not earlier than the date on which an order was made under subsection (1) in relation to that Minister.

(4) An order made under subsection (2) may not

(a) impose or increase any tax or impost,

(b) appropriate any part of the public revenue or any tax or impost, or

(c) create a new offence with retroactive effect.

(5) Where there is a conflict or inconsistency between an order made under subsection (2) and a provision of the enactment to which the order relates, the order prevails to the extent of the conflict or inconsistency.

5 The following is added after section 60:

Assistance by police officer, expert

60.1 An executive officer making an inspection who enters in or on a public place or private place under section 59 or 60 may be accompanied by

(a) a police officer whose presence is required by the executive officer for the purposes of assisting with the inspection, or

(2) A police officer may accompany an executive officer or a person appointed by the executive officer who is carrying out an order under subsection (1) for the purposes of assisting the executive officer or person appointed by the executive officer in carrying out the order.

7 Section 63(2) is repealed.

8 Section 68(1) is amended by striking out “or” at the end of clause (b) and adding the following after clause (b):

(b.1) served by electronic means, including facsimile, on a person at the electronic address provided by that person, where the electronic means provides

(i) the sender with confirmation that transmission to the electronic address of the recipient of the order, notice or other document was successfully completed, and

(ii) the recipient with the order, notice or other document in a form that is usable for subsequent reference,

or

9 Section 73 is amended

(a) in subsection (2)

(i) by striking out “medical officer of health or”;

7 Section 63(2) presently reads:

(2) If a person to whom an order is directed under section 62 fails to carry out the order within the time limited by it, in the case of an order that is not appealed, or within the time limited by the Board in the case of an order that is appealed to the Board, the executive officer or a person appointed by the executive officer may, together with any persons that are necessary, enter the public place or private place and carry out the order.

8 Section 68(1) presently reads:

68(1) Where this Act or the regulations require or permit the service of an order, notice or other document on a person, then unless this Act otherwise provides, the order, notice or other document is sufficiently served if it is

(a) served personally on the person,

(b) sent by registered mail to the person at the person’s last known address, or

(c) published in a newspaper in accordance with subsection (2).

9 Section 73 presently reads in part:

(2) A person who contravenes an order under section 62 or an order of a medical officer of health or physician under Part 3 is
(ii) by striking out “not more than $100 for each day the contravention continues” and substituting “not less than $100 and not more than $5000 for each day or part of a day during which the contravention occurs or continues”;

(b) in subsection (3)

(i) by striking out “Act or the regulations” and substituting “Act, the regulations or an order of a medical officer of health under Part 3”;

(ii) by striking out “2000” and substituting “100 000”;
