(2) Except as provided in section 12.4, the application must be made within 2 years after the date on which the applicant first

11 Sections 12.2 and 12.3 presently read:

12.2(1) An application under section 12 may be made only if the offence was reported to a police service within a reasonable period of time after the date the victim first knew or in the circumstances ought to have known that the offence occurred.

(1.1) An application under section 12.1 may be made only if the offence was reported to a police service within a reasonable period of time after the offence occurred.

(2) Subject to section 12.3, an application under section 12 or 12.1 must be made

(a) within 2 years after the date on which the victim or applicant, as the case may be, first knew, or in the circumstances ought to have known, that the offence occurred, or knew or in the circumstances ought to have known that the offence occurred.

Application for death benefit

12.3(1) An application under section 12.1 may be made only if the offence was reported to a police service within a reasonable period of time after the offence occurred.

(2) Except as provided in section 12.4, the application must be made within 2 years after the date on which the applicant first knew or in the circumstances ought to have known that the offence occurred.

12 Section 12.4 is amended by striking out “Notwithstanding sections 12.2(2)(b) and 12.3” and substituting “Despite sections 12.2(2) and 12.3(2)”.

13 Section 13 is amended

(a) in subsection (1) by striking out “On receipt of an application for financial benefits” and substituting “On receipt of an application under section 12.2 in respect of a supplemental benefit”;

(b) in subsection (3) by adding “of the former Act” after “an application made under subsection (1)”.

(b) within 10 years after the offence occurred,

whichever period expires first.

12.3 If the victim was a minor at the time the offence occurred, an application under section 12 must, subject to the regulations, be made within 10 years from the date the victim reaches the age of majority.

12 Section 12.4 presently reads:

12.4 Notwithstanding sections 12.2(2)(b) and 12.3, the Director may extend the period of time for making an application where the Director determines that there are compelling reasons to do so.

13 Section 13 presently reads in part:

13(1) On receipt of an application for financial benefits, the Director must determine, in accordance with this Act and the regulations, whether a person is eligible under section 12 for financial benefits and, if so, the amounts of the financial benefits, if any.

(3) The Director may dismiss an application made under subsection (1)

(a) if the Director determines that the victim is not eligible under section 12,

(b) if, in the opinion of the Director, the victim

(i) did not fully cooperate with any investigation into the events that resulted in the injury of the victim, or

(ii) did not provide information required under subsection (2)(a),

or

(c) for any other reason provided for in the regulations.

14 Section 13.1 is repealed and the following is substituted:

Information

13.1(1) The Director is authorized to collect information, including personal information that the Director reasonably believes is necessary, for the purpose of determining whether a person is eligible for a benefit under this Act or the amount of that benefit.

(2) The Director is authorized for the purposes of subsection (1) to collect and use information, including personal information, from

- (a) a police service relating to the event to which the benefit relates or to determine previous conduct of the victim,
- (b) a person who provided diagnostic services, treatment or care or other similar medical services to the victim, or
- (c) a public body as defined in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to determine or verify whether a person is eligible for a benefit under this Act.

(3) The persons, bodies and agencies referred to in subsection (2) are authorized to provide information, including personal information, to the Director for the purpose of determining whether a person is eligible for a benefit under this Act.

(4) The Director may disclose information, including personal information, collected under this Act

- (a) to any person for the purpose of determining whether a person is eligible for a benefit under this Act or the amount of that benefit, or
- (b) to a parent, spouse or adult interdependent partner, child or other family member of an applicant or victim or to a recognized victim services agency for the purpose of
  - (i) confirming the existence or status of an application received from an applicant or victim, or
  - (ii) disclosing the amount of any award if, in the Director's opinion, to do so would not be an

14 Section 13.1 presently reads:

13.1(1) The Director is authorized to collect information, including personal information that the Director reasonably believes is necessary, for the purpose of determining whether a person is eligible for financial benefits or a death benefit under this Act or determining the amounts of those financial benefits or the amount of that death benefit.

(2) The Director is authorized for the purposes of subsection (1) to collect and use information, including personal information, from

- (a) a police service relating to the event that resulted in the injury or death of the victim or to determine previous conduct of the victim,*
- (b) a person who provided diagnostic, treatment or care or other similar medical services to the victim, or*
- (c) a public body as defined in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to determine or verify whether a person is eligible for financial benefits or a death benefit under this Act or to determine the amounts of those financial benefits or the amount of that death benefit.*

(3) The persons, bodies and agencies referred to in subsection (2) are authorized to provide information, including personal information, to the Director for the purpose of determining whether a person is eligible for financial benefits or a death benefit under this Act or determining the amounts of those financial benefits or the amount of that death benefit.

(4) The Director may disclose information, including personal information, collected under this Act

- (a) to any person for the purpose of determining whether a person is eligible for financial benefits or a death benefit under this Act or determining the amounts of those financial benefits or the amount of that death benefit, or*
- (b) to a parent, spouse or adult interdependent partner, child or other family member of an applicant or victim or to a recognized victim services agency for the purpose of*
  - (i) confirming the existence or status of an application received from an applicant or victim, or* unreasonable invasion of the applicant's or victim's personal privacy.

15 Section 14(1) to (7) are repealed and the following is substituted:

Review by chair or member designated by chair

14(1) The chair or a member designated by the chair must consider requests for review of a benefit concerning a member of the class described in the Class Action Settlement Agreement until there is an order of the Court of Queen's Bench winding up the proceedings that gave rise to the Class Action Settlement Agreement.

(2) The Director, on being notified of the request for review, must provide the chair or member designated by the chair with a copy of all information collected or generated by the Director in respect of the application for financial benefits, the Director's decision and reasons for the decision.

(3) The chair or member designated by the chair must evaluate the request and information provided by the Director and determine whether the request

- (a) is frivolous, vexatious or made in bad faith, or
- (b) has no grounds.

(4) If the chair or member designated by the chair determines under subsection (3)(a) that the request is frivolous, vexatious or made in bad faith, or determines under subsection (3)(b) that the request has no grounds, the chair or member designated by the chair may dismiss the request and notify the applicant and the Director of the decision.

(5) The Review Board, chair or member designated by the chair, as the case may be, may refer an application for financial benefits back to the Director for reconsideration of the Director's decision if at any time before the Review Board makes a decision under section 14.01(1) it is determined that significant new information exists respecting the application.

- (ii) disclosing the amount of any award if, in the Director's opinion, it would not be an unreasonable invasion of the applicant's or victim's personal privacy.

15 Section 14(1) to (7) presently read:

14(1) Within 30 days of receiving a copy of the Director's decision under section 15.1, an applicant may make a written request to the Review Board for a review of a decision of the Director made under section 13, 13.01 or 15.

(2) The Review Board may, on receipt of a request made before or after the expiry of the period of time referred to in subsection (1), extend that period of time where the Review Board is of the opinion that there are sufficient grounds for doing so.

(3) On receipt of a request for review, the chair of the Review Board, or a member designated by the chair, must notify the Director of the request for review.

(3.1) The Director, on being notified of the request for review, must provide the chair or the member designated by the chair with a copy of all information collected or generated by the Director in respect of the application for financial benefits or a death benefit, the Director's decision and reasons for the decision.

(4) The chair or the member designated by the chair must evaluate the request and all material provided by the Director under subsection (3.1) to determine whether the request

- (a) is frivolous, vexatious or made in bad faith, or*
- (b) has no grounds.*

(5) If the chair or member designated by the chair determines under subsection (4)(a) that the request is frivolous, vexatious or made in bad faith, or determines under subsection (4)(b) that the request has no grounds, the chair or member designated by the chair may dismiss the request and notify the applicant and the Director of the decision.

(6) The Review Board, chair or member designated by the chair, as the case may be, may refer an application for financial benefits or a death benefit back to the Director for reconsideration of the Director's decision if at any time before the Review Board makes a

(6) The Review Board, chair or member designated by the chair, as the case may be, must notify the applicant of a referral made under subsection (5).

(7) If a request is not dismissed under subsection (4) and the application is not referred back to the Director under subsection (5), the chair or member designated by the chair must refer the matter to the Review Board for review in accordance with section 7.1 and must

(a) notify the Director of the referral, and

(b) notify the applicant of

(i) the referral, and

(ii) the applicant's right to choose whether the review will be conducted orally or in writing.

16 Section 14.01(4) is repealed and the following is substituted:

decision under section 14.01(1) it is determined that significant new information exists respecting the application.

(6.1) The Review Board, chair or member designated by the chair, as the case may be, must notify the applicant of a referral made under subsection (6).

(7) If a request is not dismissed under subsection (5) and the application is not referred back to the Director under subsection (6), the chair or the member designated by the chair must refer the matter to the Review Board for review in accordance with section 7.1 and must

(a) notify the Director of the referral, and

(b) notify the applicant of

(i) the referral, and

(ii) the applicant's right to choose whether the review will be conducted orally or in writing.

16 Section 14.01(4) presently reads:

(4) Subject to section 14.1, a decision of the Review Board under subsection (1) is final.

17 Section 14.1 presently reads:

14.1(1) The Director or the applicant may appeal a decision of the Review Board to the Court of Appeal only on a question of jurisdiction or on a question of law.

(2) Notice of an appeal under subsection (1) must be made within 30 days after the receipt of a copy of the Review Board's decision by the person appealing.

(3) Notice of the appeal must be given to the parties affected by the appeal and to the Review Board.

18 Section 15 presently reads:

Payments

15(1) In this section, “CIC Act” means the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, RSA 1980 cC-33.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), if The Crimes Compensation Board under the CIC Act made an order for the payment of compensation, including periodic payments, and all the payments ordered by that Board have not been paid, the Minister must, subject to there being sufficient money in the Fund, continue to make the payments, as financial benefits, as ordered by that Board.

(3) The Director may, in accordance with this Act, review and rescind, confirm or vary an order under the CIC Act under which payments are paid or payable

- (a) on an application by or on behalf of the person to whom or for whose benefit compensation is payable under the CIC Act, or
- (b) on the Director’s own initiative.

(4) The Director may impose any terms and conditions that the Director considers appropriate on an order reviewed pursuant to subsection (3).

(5) This Act and the regulations under this Act apply to reviews of orders made under the CIC Act.

19 Section 15.1 is repealed and the following is substituted:

Director’s decision

15.1 After making a decision under section 13, 13.01, 15 or 21(4)(a), the Director must

- (a) provide the applicant with a copy of the decision and reasons for the decision, and
- (b) advise the applicant
  - (i) that the applicant may request that the Review Board review the Director’s decision under section 13 or 15 of the former Act, if the decision relates to a member of the class described in the Class Action Settlement Agreement, or

15(1) Subject to subsection (2), if The Crimes Compensation Board under the former Act made an order for the payment of compensation including periodic payments and all the payments ordered by that Board have not been paid, the Minister must, subject to there being sufficient money in the Fund, continue to make the payments, as financial benefits, as ordered by that Board.

(2) The Director may, in accordance with this Act, review and rescind, confirm or vary an order under the former Act under which payments are paid or payable

(a) on an application by or on behalf of the person to whom or for whose benefit compensation is payable under the former Act, or

(b) on the Director's own initiative.

(3) The Director may impose any terms and conditions that the Director considers appropriate on an order reviewed pursuant to subsection (2).

(5) This Act and the regulations under this Act apply to reviews of orders made under the former Act and to appeals of those reviews.

19 Section 15.1 presently reads:

15.1 After making a decision under section 13, 13.01 or 15, the Director must

(a) provide the applicant with a copy of the decision and reasons for the decision, and

(b) advise the applicant that the applicant may request that the Review Board review the Director's decision.

- (ii) that the applicant may, within 30 days, apply for judicial review of the decision.

20 Section 16 is amended

- (a) in subsection (1) by striking out “financial benefits, a death benefit” and substituting “a benefit”;
