

BILL

No. 9 of 1919.

An Act to incorporate the South Hall Hospital, Edmonton.

(Assented to , 1919.)

WHEREAS Jessie Macdonald, of the City of Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta, nurse, has by her petition prayed for the passing of an Act constituting the said petitioner and other persons hereinafter mentioned, a body corporate and politic under the name aforesaid; and whereas no opposition whatever has been offered to the granting of the prayer of the said petition; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition;

Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The said Jessie Macdonald, of the City of Edmonton, aforesaid, together with such persons as from time to time hereafter, under the provisions of this Act, become life or annual governors of the South Hall Hospital, are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic under the name of "The South Hall Hospital," hereinafter called "The Corporation," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and may, under that name, sue and be sued, and shall have all the powers and privileges hereinafter mentioned and also the other powers, privileges and immunities vested by law in corporations necessary or proper for the carrying out of the objects of incorporation.

2. The said Jessie Macdonald shall be the first governor of the corporation; the word "governor" as hereinafter used shall mean the said Jessie Macdonald during her life-time and any persons who may be admitted as life or annual governors pursuant to the regulations of the corporation.

3. The head office of the corporation shall be at the City of Edmonton, or at such other place in the Province of Alberta as the governor may appoint.

4. The corporation may establish and maintain in the Province of Alberta a public general hospital to be called "The South Hall Hospital" for the treatment and care of sick and injured persons, and for that purpose may acquire by purchase or otherwise and may hold and again dispose of any such property, real or personal, as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of the corporation and may erect, furnish and equip such buildings as are considered necessary for its purpose.

5. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed and controlled by the governor.

6. The corporation may obtain subscriptions and take all gifts, legacies and bequests of money or other personalty and may, in addition to such lands as may be required for the carrying out of the objects of this Act, take by gift, devise or bequest, lands, tenements or hereditaments or interests therein, the annual value of which, together with all other lands, tenements or hereditaments or any interest therein, theretofore acquired by like means and then held by the corporation, shall not exceed in the whole twenty thousand dollars, but such last mentioned lands, tenements or hereditaments or interest therein shall not be held for a longer period than seven years from the acquisition thereof, and within that period they shall be absolutely disposed of by the said corporation, and such lands, tenements or hereditaments or interest therein as have not within the said period been so disposed of, shall revert to the person from whom the same were acquired, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, and all moneys the proceeds of sales of any such lands or other property and all or any part of the moneys derived therefrom, or from any other source may be invested from time to time in mortgage securities upon real estate, whether freehold or leasehold, in municipal debentures or the debentures of any society or company or in any other kind of security in which under the laws of the Province of Alberta a trustee may invest trust money.

7. The corporation may sell, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of from time to time any of its lands or other property acquired by it and invest the proceeds or revenue as aforesaid in any of the classes of security referred to in the next preceding section hereof or apply the same otherwise for the purposes of the corporation.

(2) The corporation may borrow or raise money for the purposes of the corporation by mortgage upon its property or any part thereof or by the issue of bonds or debentures of the corporation payable at such times and for such amounts and at such rate of interest as may be considered advisable and may secure such bonds by deed of mortgage upon its property or any part thereof or otherwise, and the corporation may become a party to promissory notes and bills of exchange for the purposes of the corporation for such amounts as may be considered necessary or advisable by the board of governors.

8. The corporation may establish and maintain in connection with the hospital a training school for nurses whereby nurses may receive a thorough training and be given a diploma upon completing the curriculum and passing the medical and nursing examinations required and may also establish and maintain a home for nurses whereby nurses who have been properly trained may be supplied to families in the City of Edmonton and elsewhere.

(2) The corporation may also establish and maintain a maternity hospital for the purpose of taking care of maternity patients.

9. The corporation may establish and maintain an infectious diseases hospital and may enter into contract with the City of Edmonton and other municipalities to take charge of and isolate by means of such hospital all cases of infectious diseases arising in any of said municipalities.

10. The governor may make regulations for the corporation, including but not so as to restrict the generality of the foregoing power, regulations for the admission of persons as life or annual governors, the organization of the corporation, the constitution powers, election and appointment of officers and the holding of annual and other meetings.
