

A BILL TO AMEND THE STOCK INSPECTION ACT, 1922.

NOTE.

Under this Act hide dealers are licensed to do business at fixed premises, whereas hide dealers travelling through the Province are governed by the provisions of The Produce Merchants Act, 1922.

To avoid this duplication of authority, provision is made in the Bill—

- (a) to change a hide dealer's license in such a way that it permits travelling around the Province; and
- (b) to require hide dealers to give a bond similar to that required under the provisions of The Produce Merchants Act, 1922.

A Bill to amend The Produce Merchants Act, 1922, provides for the removal of hide dealers from the operation of that Act.

WALTER S. SCOTT,
Legislative Counsel.
