

BILL No. 39 OF 1925.

A BILL TO AMEND THE VITAL STATISTICS ACT.

NOTE.

This Bill, with the object of obtaining more complete information for statistical purposes, provides that school teachers are to forward to the Registrar-General, the names, dates and places of birth of children entering school for the first time.

The other sections of the Bill prescribe fees payable upon the registration of legitimated children, a larger fee being asked for where the birth occurred outside the Province.
