

BILL NO. 88 OF 1925.

A BILL TO AMEND THE CONDITIONAL SALES ACT.

NOTE.

Under The Conditional Sales Act, when goods are removed into another registration district, a further registration has to be made in that district, but with respect to this there were two difficulties—

- (1) The temporary removals, e.g. of a threshing machine necessitated registration, and
- (2) It is not quite clear whether a fresh affidavit has to be filed or not.

The amendment in the Bill makes it clear that registration is only to be effected where goods are removed permanently, and that the filing of a true copy of the affidavit will be sufficient.

Section 3 of the Bill brings The Conditional Sales Act into line with The Bills of Sale Act as far as the taking of affidavits is concerned.
