

BILL

No. 70 of 1926.

An Act respecting Advances to Beet-growers.

(Assented to _____, 1926.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Beet Lien Act."

2.—(1) Any company or person supplying beet seed or advancing money for the purchase of beet seed to a grower of beets, or furnishing labour for the sowing of beet seed, or advancing money for paying for such labour, shall have a lien upon all crops of beets grown by such beet-grower from such seed for the value of the beet seed supplied or the amount of money advanced for the purchase of beet seed, and in addition for the cost of the labour furnished for sowing the said seed or money advanced for the purpose of paying for such labour.

(2) The amount of such lien shall not exceed four dollars per acre of the land upon which the seed is sown.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act, no document evidencing the said lien need be filed or registered, and the said lien shall have priority over every writ of execution, right of distress, encumbrance and charge of every description whatsoever, whether created or coming into existence before or after the passing of this Act.

4. This Act shall come into force on.....
