

BILL

No. 47 of 1927.

An Act to amend The Domestic Animals (Unorganized Territory) Act.

(Assented to _____, 1927.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Domestic Animals (Unorganized Territory) Act Amendment Act, 1927."

2. The Domestic Animals (Unorganized Territory) Act, being chapter 67 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1922, is amended by adding as section 8a, immediately after section 8, the following:

"8a.—(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may at any time, and from time to time, establish any part of the Province as an area, whether such area or any parts thereof are included in a pound district or pound districts or not, within which no domestic animals, whether prohibited or not, shall be impounded, unless they have been captured whilst doing damage or after having done damage to or upon land surrounded by a lawful fence.

"(2) When any such area has been established, no action for damages shall lie in respect of damage done by domestic animals except such damage as aforesaid.

"(3) This section shall not apply to entire animals or mischievous animals."

3. Section 18a is added to the said Act, immediately after section 18, as follows:

"18a.—(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order establish any part of the Province as a pound district, either upon his own motion or upon petition and may provide in such order that domestic animals or any class or classes thereof, owned by residents of the district, running at large therein, shall not be impounded unless they have been captured whilst doing damage or after having done damage to or upon land surrounded by a lawful fence, and that no action for damages shall lie in respect of damage done therein by domestic animals belonging to residents except damage done to or upon land surrounded by a lawful fence.

“(2) Any such order may define who are to be considered residents within the meaning of this section, and may prescribe the number of domestic animals, or of any class of domestic animals, with respect to which a resident shall be entitled to the privileges accorded by this section.

“(3) This section shall not apply to entire animals or mischievous animals.”

4. This Act shall come into force on.....
