

Bill No. 20 of 1929.

A BILL TO AMEND THE SUPERANNUATION ACT.

NOTE.

Section 2 of this Bill gives to the widow of an employee, dying whilst employed by the Government, a non-contributory annuity of the same amount as if he had retired and exercised his option to have a joint annuity in the names of himself and his wife.

Section 3 of the Bill increases the minimum annuity payable under the Act from twenty dollars to thirty dollars.

WALTER S. SCOTT,
Legislative Counsel.

BILL

No. 20 of 1929.

An Act to amend The Superannuation Act.

(Assented to _____, 1929.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1929."

2. The Superannuation Act, being chapter 8 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1922, is amended by adding as section 11b, immediately after section 11a thereof, the following:

"11b.—(1) In the event of an employee dying after ten years of continuous service, then whether he has or has not reached the age of retirement, his widow shall be entitled to a non-contributory annuity of the same amount as if the employee had been entitled to exercise and had exercised the option given him by section 12 of receiving an annuity during the joint lives of himself and his wife, and during the life of the survivor.

"(2) Subsection (1) shall only apply to an employee's widow who is living after the first day of April, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-nine, but shall not entitle her to any payment in respect of any time prior to that date."

3. Section 13 of the said Act is amended by striking out the words "twenty dollars" wherever the same occur therein, and substituting therefor the words "thirty dollars."

4. This Act shall come into force on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.
