BILL

No. 27 of 1929.

An Act to amend The Co-operative Marketing Associations Act.

(Assented to , 1929.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Co-operative Marketing Associations Act Amendment Act, 1929."

2. The Co-operative Marketing Associations Act, being chapter 5 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1924, is amended as to section 3 thereof, by inserting after the words "agricultural products" the words "or fish."

3. Section 14, subsection (1), of the said Act is amended as to paragraph (a) thereof, by inserting after the words "utilization of" the words "fish or."

4. Section 20 of the said Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the words "persons engaged in the industry of fishing, and any association to which this Act applies."

5. Section 26 of the said Act is amended as to subsection (1) by adding at the end thereof the words "or in fishing."

6. Section 46a is added to the said Act immediately after section 46, as follows:

"46a.—(1) An association under this Act may be dissolved in either of the ways following, namely:

"(a) By filing with the registrar an instrument of dissolution, executed by not less than two-thirds of the members of the association, which shall contain—

"(i) a statement that it is desirable to dissolve the association;

"(ii) a statement in detail of the assets and liabilities of the association;

"(iii) the names and last known addresses of all the members of the association, a detailed list of the creditors of the association, together with the amount of each creditor's claim, and with the instrument of dissolution shall be filed one or more sufficient affidavits verifying the execution of the said instrument and the truth of the statements therein contained; or

- "(5) The Lieutenant Governor in Council, being satisfied upon the report of the Supervisor of Co-operative Activities, that an association has ceased to carry on business for a period of not less than two consecutive years immediately prior to the making of the said report, and that it is desirable that such association should be dissolved, may order that the same be dissolved.

"(2) The registrar shall, immediately after he has filed any instrument of dissolution, cause a notice thereof to be advertised at the expense of the association in The Alberta Gazette, and in some newspaper circulating in the district in which the head office of the association is or was last situated.

"(3) Notice of every Order in Council dissolving an association shall be advertised by the registrar in The Alberta Gazette, and a newspaper circulating in the district in which the head office of the association is or was last situated.

"(4) Upon the publication in The Alberta Gazette of any such notice as aforesaid, the association affected thereby shall cease to exercise or have any of the powers conferred upon it by its incorporation, save and except only for the purpose of doing all acts and things necessary for the purpose of winding up its concerns, and of suing and being sued, in respect of all the claims and liabilities outstanding at the date of dissolution or coming into existence in the course of winding up.

"(5) The Lieutenant Governor in Council, upon being satisfied by the report of the Supervisor of Co-operative Activities, that an association which has been dissolved in either of the ways above mentioned cannot for any reason conveniently appoint officers to wind up the affairs of the association, may appoint one or more persons as the liquidator or liquidators of the concerns of the association. Notice of every such order shall be published in The Alberta Gazette, at the expense of the association, and upon such publication, the liquidator or liquidators, so appointed, shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by incorporation upon the association, or by any by-law upon the trustees, directors or any other officials of the association, for the purpose of selling or otherwise disposing of the property of the association and distributing the same amongst the persons by law entitled to the same."

7. Section 47 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto, as subsection (1a), immediately before subsection (1) thereof, the following:

"(1a) Any co-operative association incorporated under The Co-operative Associations Act, which, on the 12th day of April, 1924, was empowered to market or was engaged in the marketing of any of the agricultural products of its members through co-operation, may become registered as an association under this Act upon filing with the Registrar a statement in writing designed by the Secretary, setting out the nature of the agricultural products marketed by the association, a resolution of the trustees of the association requesting registration, and the approval in writing of the Supervisor of Co-operative Activities; and thereupon the Registrar shall register the association and issue his certificate of registration, and the association shall, in respect of its marketing of agricultural products, have all the powers, capacities and liabilities of an association incorporated under this Act."
