

Bill No. 46 of 1932.

A BILL TO AMEND THE BRAND ACT.

NOTE.

This Bill amends The Brand Act making provision for the branding of poultry by means of a tattoo on the web of either wing, and contains a special provision requiring that the web of both wings of any poultry dressed for market shall be left intact.

R. ANDREW SMITH,
Legislative Counsel.

BILL

No. 46 of 1932.

An Act to amend The Brand Act.

(Assented to _____, 1932.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Brand Act Amendment Act, 1932."

2. The Brand Act, being chapter 66 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1922, is hereby amended as to section 2 thereof—

(a) by inserting therein, immediately after clause (g) thereof, the following:

“(gg) ‘Poultry’ shall mean any turkey, goose, duck, cock, hen or capon”;

(b) by striking out clause (i) thereof and by substituting therefor the following:

“(i) ‘Stock’ shall mean any horse, any head of cattle, any ram, ewe, wether or lamb, any turkey, goose or duck, and any cock, hen or capon.”

3. The said Act is further amended by inserting therein, immediately after section 3a thereof, the following new section:

“3b. Every brand for poultry shall consist of a tattoo on the web of either wing.”

4. The said Act is further amended by inserting therein, immediately after section 16 thereof, the following new section:

“16a. Every person who dresses poultry for market, and every person who deals in or handles dressed poultry for market, shall leave intact the web of both wings of every head of poultry so dressed or dealt in or handled, and every person who in contravention of this section removes, mutilates or destroys the web of a wing of any poultry, or defaces, makes illegible, alters or destroys any brand thereon, shall be guilty of an offence and shall, in addition to any other penalty to which he may be subject by law, be liable on summary conviction therefor to a fine of not more than two hundred dollars and costs.”
