

BILL

No. 96 of 1937.

An Act to amend The Stallion Enrolment Act, 1924.

(Assented to _____, 1937.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Stallion Enrolment Act, 1924, Amendment Act, 1937."

2. The Stallion Enrolment Act, 1924, being chapter 23 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1924, is hereby amended by inserting therein immediately after section 4 thereof, the following new section:

"4a.—(1) The owner of any stallion in respect of which a certificate or an interim certificate has not been issued pursuant to this Act, shall not use such stallion or permit or suffer such stallion to be used for the servicing of any mares save and except only,—

"(a) if the owner of such stallion is a body corporate, mares which are the bona fide property of the body corporate;

"(b) if the owner is a partnership, mares which are the bona fide property of the partnership exclusive of all mares which are the property of an individual member of the partnership; and

"(c) if the owner of the stallion is a natural person, mares which are the bona fide property of such owner and of such of his immediate relatives who are resident with him as members of his household.

"(2) Every person who uses, or permits or suffers to be used any stallion in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence.

"(3) Every person having the charge of any mare who knowingly causes or suffers or permits such mare to be served by a stallion in contravention of the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of an offence, and upon any prosecution therefor the defendant shall be deemed to have knowledge unless he satisfies the magistrate or justice trying the same that he made reasonable enquiries as to whether or not a certificate or interim certificate had been issued in respect of the stallion pursuant to this Act."

3. This Act shall come into force on the day upon which it is assented to.
