

Bill No. 11 of 1937 (Second Session).

A BILL TO AMEND THE GAME ACT, 1932.

NOTE.

The section proposed to be repealed by this Bill reads as follows:

“15. No person shall at any time destroy, partially destroy, open, leave open or place any trap in the house or push-up of any muskrat or beaver, unless authorized so to do by the regulations relating to fur-farming, and in accordance therewith.”

The section which this Bill proposes to substitute for the section above quoted makes lawful the placing of traps in any house or push-up of muskrats, but prohibits the destruction, opening or placing of traps in the house of any beaver, or the runway or den of any muskrat, unless authorized so to do by the regulations made pursuant to section 37 of the Act.

R. ANDREW SMITH,
Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill and is offered merely as a partial explanation of some of its provisions.)
