Bill No. 17 of 1941.

A BILL RESPECTING TAX EXEMPTIONS FOR ADDITIONAL GRAIN STORAGE FACILITIES.

NOTE.

This Bill implements the terms of a tentative agreement between the Government and the elevator companies.

In consideration of the companies providing additional grain storage facilities at various points throughout the Province, the Government agreed to introduce legislation exempting all such storage facilities from taxation for the duration of the war and for a reasonable time afterwards to allow the grain companies an opportunity to remove any such structures.

W. S. GRAY,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
