

REPRINTED BILL

Bill No. 13 of 1942.

A BILL TO AMEND THE MINING INDUSTRY WAGES
SECURITY ACT

NOTE.

This Bill amends The Mining Industry Wages Security Act.

The definition of "designated industry" is amended to mean any "mine" (being defined in the Act as a coal-mine), It may also include any of certain listed industries which the Lieutenant Governor in Council may declare to be a designated industry and to be subject to the provisions of this Act.

A definition of "lumbering" is added to the Act, as it falls within the list of industries which may be declared to be designated industries.

W. S. GRAY,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)

REPRINTED BILL

BILL

No. 13 of 1942.

An Act to amend The Mining Industry Wages
Security Act.

(Assented to _____, 1942.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Mining Industry Wages Security Act Amendment Act, 1942."

2. The Mining Industry Wages Security Act, being chapter 91 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1938, is hereby amended as to section 2,—

(a) by striking out paragraph (a) thereof and by substituting therefor the following:

"(a) 'Designated industry' means any mine, and any of the following industries which the Lieutenant Governor in Council may from time to time by Order in Council published in The Alberta Gazette, declare to be a designated industry, and to be subject to the provisions of this Act, namely:

"(i) lumbering;

"(ii) quarrying;

"(iii) any salt mine or any works operated for the purpose of processing salt or tar sands at or in the immediate vicinity of the place at which the salt or tar sands is mined, won or gotten;

"(iv) any drilling operation which is being carried on for the purpose of searching for natural gas or oil or salt, or for the purpose of obtaining natural gas or oil or salt;"

(b) by adding immediately after paragraph (b) thereof the following new paragraph:

"(bb) 'Lumbering' in addition to its ordinary meaning includes all operations carried on at saw-mills, box factories, wood working plants, or by logging and railway tie contractors; and 'lumber product' means any part of a log or piece of lumber, and without derogating from the generality of the foregoing,

includes any tie, post, beam, plank, board,
siding, lath or shingle;”.

3. This Act shall come into force on the day upon which it is assented to.
