

Bill No. 35 of 1942.

A BILL PROVIDING FOR THE REPEAL OF THE
INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES INVESTIGATION
ACT (ALBERTA), 1928.

---

NOTE.

The Act proposed to be repealed by this Bill provided that The Industrial Disputes Investigation Act of the Dominion should apply to every industrial dispute defined in the Act which was within the exclusive legislative jurisdiction of the Province. The object of the Act was to support the Dominion jurisdiction over labour disputes even in cases where Parliament had no authority. From time to time uncertainty has arisen as to whether the Province or Dominion had jurisdiction in certain labour disputes. The repeal of the above Act will clarify the situation and make it clear that The Provincial Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act applies in all cases in which the Province has jurisdiction.

W. S. GRAY,
Acting Legislative Counsel.
