

Bill No. 51 of 1942.

A BILL TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTIONAL
QUESTIONS ACT.

NOTE.

The object of this Bill is to make it clear that a reference to the Court under the Act is to be to the Appellate Division of the Court. This has been the practice at all times since the Appellate Division was first created. The Act is made retroactive to the date when the Appellate Division was constituted as a separate division under that name.

W. S. GRAY,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
