

Bill No. 18 of 1943.

A BILL TO AMEND THE INDUSTRIAL WAGES
SECURITY ACT.

NOTE.

Section 1 of the Bill amends the definition of “designated industry” to provide that the Order in Council may restrict the operation of the order in respect of such industry to certain specified areas within the Province.

Section 2 of the Bill amends section 7 of the Act to provide that the Minister may accept any type of security which he deems advisable and may refer to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners, the application to furnish securities in order to have the same approved by the Board.

W. S. GRAY,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

BILL

No. 18 of 1943.

An Act to amend The Industrial Wages Security Act.

(Assented to _____, 1943.)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, enacts as follows:

1. The Industrial Wages Security Act, being chapter 281 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942, is hereby amended as to section 2 by adding at the end of paragraph (a) thereof the following proviso:

“Provided that the Lieutenant Governor in Council may in the order establishing a designated industry, restrict the operation of the Order in Council to a specified area to be named in the Order in Council in relation to each designated industry named therein.”

2. The said Act is further amended by striking out section 7 thereof and by substituting therefor the following:

“7.—(1) The security shall consist of cash or a guarantee bond of a bonding company authorized to carry on business in the Province, or such other security or securities as may be approved by the Minister.

“(2) The Minister may submit the application to furnish such other security to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

“(3) The Board shall consider the nature of the operations of the employer, the assets and liabilities of the employer, the amount of wages payable to the employees and such other information relevant to the application as may be submitted by the employer or required by the Board.

“(4) If the Board is satisfied with the security or securities submitted by the employer, the Board may issue a certificate to the Minister to that effect.

“(5) The Minister upon receipt of any such certificate from the Board may then approve the security under the provisions of this section.”

3. This Act shall come into force on the day upon which it is assented to.
