

Legislative Assembly of Alberta

Title: Wednesday, November 1, 1995                      8:00 p.m.
Date: 95/11/01
[The Speaker in the Chair]

THE SPEAKER: Please be seated.

head: Public Bills and Orders Other than
head: Government Bills and Orders
head: Second Reading

Bill 214 Victims of Violence Act

THE SPEAKER: Hon. members, earlier today we left a little unfinished business. The Chair is advised that Bill 214 was not formally read the second time, so we'll now proceed with that matter.

THE CLERK: Bill 214, Victims of Violence Act, is now read a second time.

head: Government Motions
Winter Recess

29. Mr. Day moved:
Be it resolved that when the Assembly adjourns to recess the fall sittings of the Third Session of the 23rd Legislature, it shall stand adjourned until the time and date for a spring sitting as determined by the Speaker after consultation with the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

[Motion carried]

head: Government Bills and Orders
head: Second Reading

MR. DAY: Mr. Speaker, I am requesting unanimous consent to waive Standing Order 73(1) so that we may have second reading of the Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act, as agreed to by the House leaders.

THE SPEAKER: Is there unanimous assent in the Assembly for the motion proposed by the hon. Government House Leader?

HON. MEMBERS: Agreed.

THE SPEAKER: Opposed? Carried.

Bill 53 Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act, 1995 (No. 2)

MR. DAY: Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Minister of Justice, I would move Bill 53.

The unique thing, of course, about the Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act is that it is that one rare Bill that comes to the House with the unanimous agreement of both sides that all matters have been already deliberated on in terms of the Bill itself. Maybe we can use that Bill in the future to look at how we handle other Bills.

I now move Bill 53 for second reading.

[Motion carried; Bill 53 read a second time]

head: Committee of the Whole

[Mr. Tannas in the Chair]

THE CHAIRMAN: I'd call the committee to order.

Bill 53 Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act, 1995 (No. 2)

THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any comments, amendments?

[The clauses of Bill 53 agreed to]

[Title and preamble agreed to]

THE CHAIRMAN: Shall the Bill be reported? Are you agreed?

HON. MEMBERS: Agreed.

THE CHAIRMAN: Opposed? Carried.

MR. DAY: Mr. Chairman, I would now move that the committee rise and report.

[Motion carried]

[The Speaker in the Chair]

MR. TANNAS: Mr. Speaker, the Committee of the Whole has had under consideration certain Bills. The committee reports Bill 53.

THE SPEAKER: Does the Assembly concur in the report?

HON. MEMBERS: Agreed.

THE SPEAKER: Opposed? So ordered.

head: Third Reading

MR. DAY: Mr. Speaker, once again I request unanimous consent to waive Standing Order 73(1) so that we may have third reading of the Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act, Bill 53.

THE SPEAKER: Is there consent in the Assembly for this motion?

HON. MEMBERS: Agreed.

THE SPEAKER: Opposed? Carried.

Bill 53 Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act, 1995 (No. 2)

MR. DAY: Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Minister of Justice I would move Bill 53 for third reading.
